Star Choice

ANNA MARIA OF THE MOOBLES

WAITING FOR A GIRL LIKE YOU — Foreigner. I don't usually like Foreigner's music but this is the perfect romantic ballad. Such a soft and fuzzy rhythm.

SAY HELLO, WAVE GOODBYE — Soft Cell. Marc Almond is an amazing singer and performer. His phrasing is so perfect, it feels like he's talking directly to you instead of singing.

THE MORE I SEE YOU — Chris Montez. I haven't heard this song for years till I went to see the Deerhunter. Loved it ever since.

REMEMBER ME — Diana Ross. Diana Ross was terrific but now she's become far too showbizzy for my tastes. This was her finest hour.

MY ONLY LOVE — Roxy Music. I like this for no particular reason I can think of, except that it has an atmosphere all of its own.

ANNA — The Beatles. A very old Beatles song and John Lennon's voice has never been finer.

DARE — Human League. The whole album is brilliant. Not one dull track.

THE AIR THAT I BREATHE — The Hollies. My brother had a copy and I used to sing it so loudly around the house all day. I drove the family mad because I could never get that long note at the end!

SINCE YOU'VE BEEN GONE — Rain. Now listed to be a heavy metal fan — not an actual headbanger — and Graham Bonnet always used to drive me wild.

EMIS DENIS — Blondie. Truly great song. When I'm old and grey and everyone's forgotten this song I'll go cover version which will drive everyone wild. It's time will come again... probably mine won't!
