

BEST SELLERS 1984

Compiled by Alan Jones

RM'S EXCLUSIVE survey of 1984's top acts is based on sales of the year's top 1,000 singles and albums, as determined by Gallup.

I've given the number one act in each category a 'sales index' of 1,000, and the indices of all other records are related to this. For example, for every 1,000 Lionel Richie albums sold, record shops shifted 944 albums by Michael Jackson but only 272 by Paul Young. Easy, huh?

I've also listed the year-end rankings gained by each artist's individual singles/albums in brackets after their names, so you can see how their records fared in the year. Looking at the top singles acts you will, for example, see that seventh placed George Michael owes his place to just one record — obviously 'Careless Whisper' — which was number seven in the year end rankings. However, Big Country (in 61st place) placed seven singles on the year end rankings, the highest being at number 128, and the lowest at 952. They didn't, of course, release that many singles in the year, but their record label did re-press their earlier singles.

Special thanks to Daniel Pirani, for computer wizardry above and beyond the call of duty.

● SHOULD THE hitlist be an annual feature? Should it be extended to take in the album charts? Or America's singles and albums? SINGLES OVERVIEW

FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD'S status as top singles act in 1984 was never in doubt, but spare a thought for Wham!, who tracked them all year, but were pushed into third place at the death by Band Aid. The rest of the top 10 has a fairly predictable look to it, and comprises entirely British and American acts. Indeed, the Anglo-American duopoly swamped everything else, filling all but four berths in the top 100. It was rather more Anglo than American though, with the Yanks taking 32 places in the survey, exactly half the British total. It's noticeable too that all but 10 of the American acts are black, confirming the trend towards reverse discrimination first reported in Chartfile last year.

43 per cent of the top 100 acts are billed as soloists, with men trouncing women 32-11. It would have been much worse for the ladies but for a significant contribution from Americans. Britain was represented only by Hazell Dean, Alison Moyet and Tracey Ullman (NB: Sade insists she's a group, and who are we to argue?). Top girl was Cyndi Lauper, in fifteenth place, though an all girl group — the Pointers — finished a notch higher.

Veterans Paul McCartney and Queen both made the top 10, the latter enjoying their best year in several.

Altogether some 591 acts featured in the top 1,000 singles, wooden spoonists being Baby Boom who sold a meagre 1.4 singles for every 1,000 by Frankie Goes To Hollywood.

ALBUMS OVERVIEW

ONE OF only two Americans to finish amongst the top 10 singles acts, Lionel Richie did even better on the album rankings, taking pole position narrowly ahead of former stable-mate Michael Jackson. Bob Marley and Wham! were in close attendance, whilst Queen grabbed a deserved fifth place, as all 13 of their albums were placed in the top 1,000. David Bowie was even more conspicuous, with 16 albums listed. Genesis (12) and Status Quo (10) were the only other acts to reach double figures.

The top two instrumental acts were Frenchmen Richard Clayderman (42nd) and Jean Michel Jarre (52nd), whilst the rest of the international contingent comprised a German, a Barbadian, a Spaniard, a Jamaican and FIVE acts from Ireland. U2 were the Emerald Isle's top export, in tenth place. The Fureys were 50th, Foster & Allen 51st, Chris De Burgh 53rd and Clannad 93rd.

Britons outranked Americans by 60 to 29, and men again got the better of women by 30 to 10.

Fifteen years after they last recorded anything new, The Beatles grabbed 70th place on strong catalogue sales. Their personal top of the pops was '20 Greatest Hits' (321st), and their highest placed non-compilation was 'Sergeant Pepper' (555th), which, contrary to reports elsewhere, still outsells 'Abbey Road' by nearly 50 per cent.

ALL RECORDS still in chart at 29 December 1984 are marked with an asterisk (*). Some 1983 hits (EG: 'New Song' by Howard Jones) had left the chart before the beginning of 1984, but re-charted at a later date. Their 1984 chart careers ONLY are included here. However, if a record which first charted in 1983 CONTINUED to chart into 1984, full details are given.

ONCE AGAIN I have compiled the four hour continuous party music tape which will be going out around London on Capital Radio 95.8FM from 10.03pm New Year's Eve until 2am, with Big Ben at midnight. In the past so many DJs have told me they've tuned in to relay the chimes at their gigs and then been sucked into the musical jollity without being able to escape that this time I've made sure the playlist is ready and printed in advance to give warning of what to expect! Always called 'Ain't Nothin' But A House Party', the programme actually includes the Show Stoppers' record this year, and is possibly rather harder and pacier with more pop and less MoR than on previous occasions. Most of the sequences have been proven to work at my mobile gigs this year (monitor cassettes of which I checked for much of the running order), everything having been recorded "live" in the Capital studio and only tidied up with a razor blade in a few instances where a record jumped and others were affected by static crackle after cueing on one particular slipmat. Decks were unfortunately not vari-speed so there's not much fancy mixing, but there are a lot of chops (hence one of my nicknames 'Megamix The Mighty Chopper'). When chopping I usually come in on an emphatic beat and even when just seguing (letting one record follow the natural outro of another) I often skip any intro preamble, many records being mixed or chopped after only a verse or two. To indicate the type of link, a diagonal / means chop, dash — mix, comma , segue (everything up to the full hour being 7in unless specified). Here we go then, at 10.30pm on Monday December 31st.

Ray Parker Jr 'Ghostbusters' — Frankie Goes To Hollywood 'Relax', Daxys 'Midnight Runners' 'Come On Eileen (DJ Edit)', Rolling Stones 'Brown Sugar', Frankie Goes To Hollywood 'Two Tribes' (minus intro), Bronski Beat 'Why?', Michael Jackson 'Beat It' (minus intro) — Soft Cell 'Tainted Love' (12in) — Wham! HIP HOP NEWSFLASH

GRANDMASTER FLASH, the master mixer himself (not to be confused with other usurpers of his title), flies into London this weekend to help launch two brand new hip hop clubs. Residents at both weekly venues will be Mastermind while on the opening nights Flash will be joined by the London All Star Breakers, and both clubs are located at Arena. Starting Fri (28) Arena 1 at the Lyceum is for 0 18s, starting Saturday (29) Arena 2 Camden Town's Electric Ballroom 1 for under-18s.
