THIS WEEK'S CHART

● ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● Youth continues to dominate the chart this week, as Glenn Medeiros soars to number one with his debut single 'Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For You'.

Medeiros is the fourth teenage act to top the charts this year — an unprecedented event — following Tiffany, Kylie Minogue and Bros' earlier exploits.

Medeiros, from Kauai, Hawaii, was 18 on 24 June, and is the youngest male solo single to have a number one single since Donny Osmond last reached the summit just prior to his 16th birthday in 1973 with 'Young Love'.

In jumping from number 11 to number one, Medeiros' single is the first to climb to the top of the charts outside the top 10 since June last year, when the Firm's 'Star Trekkin'' leapt from number 13 to number one.

He's the first Hawaiian ever to have a number one hit, beating the number four peak of compatriot Yvonne Elliman's biggest hit 'If I Can't Have You'.

Glenn, whose own musical idols are Lionel Richie, Michael Jackson, James Ingram, Atlantic Starr and Elvis Presley, will release his first album next month, simply entitled 'Glenn Medeiros'.

'Nothing's Gonna Change My Love For You' has already been a number one hit in Canada, Norway, Portugal, France and Holland, selling nearly three million copies worldwide. It was written by Gerry Goffin and Michael Masser, who were also responsible for Whitney Houston's 1985 chart topper 'Saving All My Love For You'.

● Already established as the best selling single ever, New Order's 'Blue Monday' last week became the number two compact disc single of all-time, behind the Pet Shop Boys' 'Always On My Mind'.

The Pet Shop Boys previously held the number one and number two spots in this chart, with 'Heart' as runner-up. 'Always On My Mind' sold predominantly in 1987, so 'Blue Monday' is, so far at least, 1988's number one CD single.

The best selling CD singles tend not to be the same as the best selling singles overall. There appear to be two reasons for this. Firstly, some singles are released in miniscule quantities on CD, if at all, regardless of the popularity of the relevant seven and 12 inchers. Secondly, owning a CD player is still very much the exception, not the norm, with fewer than 10 per cent of households thus equipped, and because of their relatively high price, they are more likely to be owned by those at the yuppie upper end of the market, not noted for its undying loyalty to, say, Bros. Anyway, here's this year's top 10 CD singles for the period from January to June, with position in the overall singles chart for the same period shown in brackets:

1 (25) BLUE MONDAY '88 — New Order; 2 (9) HEART — Pet Shop Boys; 3 (2) I THINK WE'RE ALONE NOW — Tiffany; 4 (30) CANDLE IN THE WIND (LIVE) — Elton John; 5 (251) I NEED A MAN — Eurythmics; 6 (110) GIVE ME ALL YOUR LOVE — Whitesnake; 7 (50) NEVER/THESE DREAMS — Heart; 8 (83) TOWER OF STRENGTH — the Mission; 9 (37) EVERYWHERE — Fleetwood Mac; 10 (8) GET OUTTA MY DREAMS, GET INTO MY CAR — Billy Ocean.

● With their follow-up single, 'Superfly Guy', on the starting block, S-Express's debut single, 'Theme

● MEDEIROS: Hawaii's most popular export since . . . Steve McGarrett

From S-Express', has repeated its UK number one success by topping the chart in Belgium, Switzerland and Greece.

Though it only recently exited from the UK charts, it has already appeared on five compilation albums, and must be fancied to become the most frequently compiled hit of the year. For the present, however, the title is shared jointly by Bomb The Bass 'Beat Dis' and the Beatmasters & Cookie Crew hit 'Rok Da House' each of which has already graced eight compilations since becoming hits earlier in the year. 'Rok Da House' also appeared on Serious Records' 'Best Of House 2' last September.

All three of the acts mentioned above record for Rhythm King Records (Bomb The Bass through Rhythm King's subsidiary Mister-Ron), but the only album yet to feature 'Beat Dis', 'Rok Da House' and 'Theme From S-Express' is the K-tel release 'The Hits Of The House Are Here'.

CHARTFILE USA

● In this, Australia's Bicentennial year, Aussie recording acts have made their biggest impression on the world's charts, and now this more true than in America, the Australian share of the Hot 100 climbs to a record seven per cent week, courtesy of INXS, up to number four with their fourth consecutive top 10 hit 'New Sensation', Midnight Oil (number 23), Kylie Minogue (number the Church (number 71), Crowded House (number 85) Jimmy Barnes (number 91) and Icehouse (number 92).

Waiting in the wings are the reformed Little River Band, the much-vaunted Jenny Morris whose hard rocking US debut, 'You're Gonna Get Hurt', was by Andrew Farris of INXS.
