THIS WEEK'S CHART

● ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

★ Kylie Minogue's version of 'The Loco-Motion' increases its sales significantly this week, but not as much as Yazz And The Plastic Population's 'The Only Way Is Up', which had an outstanding week, doubling its sales, and increasing its lead at the top of the chart.

Kylie would now appear to have no chance of reaching number one with 'The Loco-Motion', but the Stock Aitken Waterman hit factory rolls on relentlessly. In addition to Brother Beyond's current hit, 'The Harder I Try', the next few weeks should see Stock Aitken Waterman written/produced cuts from Bananarama, Hazell Dean, Samantha Fox, Sinitta, Sabrina and Kylie's 'Neighbours' co-star Jason Donovan, who debuts on Waterman's PWL label on August 30 with 'Nothing Can Divide US'.

★ Two very different British bands with a substantial number of hits to their credit are making waves again.

Iron Maiden debut at number six with their 18th hit, 'The Evil That Men Do'. Only one of Maiden's previous singles has made a bigger impression — their last outing, 'Can I Play With Madness', which debuted at number four and subsequently reached number three.

And Five Star move up strongly to number 28 this week with 'Rock My World'. It's their 16th hit since they got off the mark with 'All Fall Down' a fraction over three years ago. No other act can match their track record of hits in the intervening period.

Meanwhile, Shakin' Stevens, who has had more hits in the Eighties as a whole than any other act (25 solo, plus a duet with Bonnie Tyler), dips to number 39 with his perfunctory cover of the Detroit

Emeralds hit 'Feel The Need In Me'.

★ Three months after it was first released, the Julio Iglesias/Stevie Wonder single 'My Love' is a hit.

It jumps 23 places to number 33 this week, and much of its belated success is due to the fact that Lizzie has been using it recently on her popular exercise spot on TV-AM.

Both Stevie and Julio have previously charted in duets with two other partners. Wonder reached number one in 1982, duetting with Paul McCartney on 'Ebony And Ivory', whilst 'Get It', his duet with Michael Jackson disappointingly peaked at number 37 a few weeks ago.

Julio's previous successes as a duettist both came in 1984, when he teamed first with Willie Nelson for the number 17 hit 'To All The Girls I've Loved Before', and then with Diana Ross for the number 43 single 'All Of You'.

Prior to this, Julio scored four solo hits, but since then he's had no success on his own. 'My Love', therefore, is his third consecutive hit with a different vocal partner — something no other singer has ever managed to do.

● Once again this week 57 of the top 75 singles are commercially available on CD. The CD share of the singles market is now regularly between 4 and 5 per cent. With 12 inch sales at 32 per cent and cassette singles around 0-5 per cent, the seven inch share of the market is around 62-63 per cent, its lowest level since 1959, when it took over from the 10 inch 78rpm as the most popular format. Here's this week's top CD singles:
