THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Enya's 'Orinoco Flow' gathers pace, moving further ahead of Kylie Minogue's 'Je Ne Sais Pas Pourquoi' at the top of the singles chart this week, but mounting a challenge are Millie Vanilli with 'Girl, You Know It's True', which jumps from number 10 to number three, Yazz and 'Stand Up For Your Love Rights' which also leaps seven places to number four, and the year's most bizarre musical marriage, that of the Art Of Noise and Tom Jones. Their collaborative effect, 'Kiss', vaults from 19 to number five.

The Noise/Jones disc trebled its sales last week and, consequently, tops the number six chart peak scaled by Prince's original of the song.

'Kiss' is the third Prince composition to reach the top five for someone other than the man himself, following 'I Feel For You', a number one hit for Chaka Khan in 1984, and 'Manic Monday', the Bangles' 1986 number two smash.

Meanwhile, Prince confirms his stature as one of the biggest stars of the Eighties as his latest magnum opus 'I Wish U Heaven' debuts at number 31. It brings his tally of hits in the last five years to 20 — more than any other act can boast in the same period.

★ U2's 'Rattle And Hum' passes the 500,000 sales mark this week domestically, whilst its world sales already exceed 7,000,000.

In Europe, 'Rattle And Hum' is already number one in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Sweden, Holland, Belgium, Norway, Italy and (naturally) Ireland. And in America, where it topped the million mark in five days, 'Rattle And Hum' debuted at number 14 last week, and jumps to number five this week. The last double album to make a higher debut was Ste Wonder's 'Original Musiquarium I', which stormed in at number five in 1982.

Incidentally, on its first week of release in the UK, when it sold over 320,000 copies, 'Rattle And Hum' logged no fewer than 80,000 sales on compact disc, the highest ever one week sale for any compact disc.

U2's domination of the charts overseas could fade, as it has here, when Dire Straits' 'Money For Nothing' compilation reaches its full sales potential.

The Dire Straits album remains number one here for the second straight week, and has already sold over 200,000 copies — an impressive figure but one which, if record dealers are correct, is some way short of its true potential. They ordered over 900,000 copies of the album before it was released. The only album ever to have a bigger pre-sale to dealers was Frankie Goes To Hollywood's 'Welcome To The Pleasuredome', which "shipped" 1,050,000 copies straight off, though its over-the-counter sales were much, much lower, and it was to take exactly a year to sell a million copies.

'Money For Nothing' should reach the mark much more quickly, and when it does it seems certain to have sold fewer copies on vinyl than any previous million seller. On its first week in the shops, only 18 per cent of its sales were on vinyl, with CD and cassettes each accounting for 41 per cent of its total.

★ Our occasional round-up of European number one singles and albums will follow shortly. Meanwhile, it's interesting to note that several former British hits that failed to reach pole position here have topped the chart on the continent, amongst them the Pet Shop Boy's 'Domino Dancing', now number one in Finland, Duranduran's 'I Don't Want Your Love' (Italy), Womack & Womack's 'Teardrops' (Holland), B.V.S.M.P.'s 'I Need You' (Greece) and Ofra Haza's 'Im Nin Alu' (Portugal).

★ Ten years after their 19th hit, Bucks Fizz take their score to a score, as 'Heart Of Stone' debuts at number 56. It's quite like old times for the group, back with original producer Andy Hill, on original label RCA, after a three year hiatus.

● TOM JONES tries to stop his facelift slipping

The two man/two woman act is the most successful British mixed vocal group ever, though America's Gladys Knight & The Pips (21 hits) and Sweden's Abba (25 hits) have more chart entries to their credit.

★ The highest new entry to this week's singles chart is Brother Beyond's 'He Ain't No Competition'. It's the second time in three weeks that a Stock Waterman composition/production been the highest debutant, emulating Minogue's 'Je Ne Sais Pas Pourquoi'.

Its debut coincides with the demi Brother Beyond's breakthrough single 'Harder I Try', which dips out of the after a 14 week chart run, during which it climbed as high as number two.
