THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● Robin Beck remains at number one for the third week in a row, but Bros make their presence felt with 'Cat Among The Pigeons/Silent Night' debuting at number two, whilst Cliff Richard's 100th hit, 'Mistletoe & Wine', debuts at number seven. Cliff is only the second act to accumulate 100 hits, following Elvis Presley, who has 108. Elvis' 100th was 'Guitar Man' in 1981. He had previously had a hit with the same song in 1968, but the 1981 version sported a new instrumental track. Unlike Cliff, who's getting maximum mileage out of his 100th hit, Presley's disc, which was four years posthumous, peaked at number 43.

Both Cliff and Bros are considered front runners for the Christmas number one, which, confusingly, won't be announced until Christmas Day — but I have a sneaking suspicion that even if Bros sneak ahead of Robin Beck next week, they will peak too early.

For those of you considering a flutter, here's the odds on the Christmas number one as set by bookmakers William Hill on Monday.

9/4 K Minogue/J Donovan, 5/2 Bros, 11/4 Cliff Richard, 8/1 Buddy Holly, 10/1 Bobby McFerrin, 12/1 Angry Anderson, U2, Breathe, 14/1, Shakin' Stevens, George Michael, Pet Shop Boys, Hollies, 16/1, Nat King Cole, Phil Collins, A-ha, Beach Boys, Chris Rea, Michael Jackson, London Beat, Erasure, Belinda Carlisle, Reggae Philharmonic Orchestra, 20/1, Dame Edna Everage, Natalie Cole, Alexander O'Neal, Bomb The Bass, Fleetwood Mac, Freiheit, 25/1 Pogues, George Van Dusen, Status Quo, T'Pau, John Lennon, 33/1, Petula Clark.

● 'Kissing A Fool' debuts at number 24 this week, becoming the sixth top 30 hit lifted off George Michael's album 'Faith'. That's one short of the record established last week by Michael Jackson's 'Bad'. In America, however, 'Kissing A Fool' has just peaked at number five, and 'Faith' is the only album to yield six top five singles, 'Kissing A Fool' being preceded by the number two hit 'I Want Your Sex' and four number ones: 'Faith', 'Father Figure', 'One More Try' and 'Monkey'.

It's not just as a singles artist that George is successful in America either — the 'Faith' album has sold 6,500,000 copies. It dips to number 11 there on this week's album chart after 51 weeks in a row in the top 10.

● New figures announced this week by the BPI show album sales at an all-time high. In the 12 months to September, album sales topped 150,000,000 for the first time, increasing eight per cent over the previous year to 151.7 million. LPs account for 33 per cent of the total, compared to 51 per cent for cassette and 16 per cent for compact discs.

Singles sales are down by just three per cent in the same 12 months period to 61.4 million. Seven inch, 12 inch and cassette singles are all down, but CD singles are gaining ground rapidly. In the three months ending September some 507,000 CD singles were sold — an increase of 1079 per cent on the same period of 1987. This sector of the singles market is becoming increasingly important, a fact we hope to reflect by carrying the CD singles chart on this page at more regular intervals than was previously the case. Here's this week's top 30.

● With INXS at number five, Angry Anderson at number 16 and Kylie Minogue at number 21, there are three Aussies in the top 30 for the first time ever. And let's hear it for Belgium's Peter Slaghuis — aka Hithouse — who's up to number 14 with 'Jack To The Sound Of The Underground'. Only two Belgians in chart history have had bigger hits — the Singing Nun, who reached number seven in 1964 with 'Dominique' and Plastic Bertrand, whose 'Ca Plane Pour Moi' reached number eight in 1978.

● GEORGE MICHAEL "where is that removal van with all me bleedin' furniture?"
