THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Madonna moves into the super-league this week, as 'Like A Prayer' becomes her sixth number one. Only five acts have topped the singles chart on more occasions — the Beatles and Elvis Presley have each had 17 number ones, Cliff Richard has had 12, Abba had nine and the Rolling Stones had eight.

Madonna is easily the most successful woman, doubling the total of three number ones enjoyed by joint runners-up Sandie Shaw and Whitney Houston. Despite this, Maddy has spent a mere 12 weeks at number one to date, the same as Connie Francis, and three fewer than the leading female soloist, Doris Day.

Madonna wrote 'Like A Prayer' with Pat Leonard, with whom she also wrote her last two number ones, 'Who's That Girl' and 'La Isla Bonita'. She wrote 'Papa Don't Preach' with Brian Elliott and teamed with Stephen Bray for 'Into The Groove' and 'True Blue'. Only one other woman has written/co-written more than two number ones — Debbie Harry of Blondie, who co-authored three of the group's number ones, two with Chris Stein and one with Giorgio Moroder.

Finally, Madonna also helped to produce all six of her number ones, and, once again, that's twice as many as any other woman. Her runner-up here is a woman who's identity few would guess — Yoko Ono, who was credited as a producer on all three of the John Lennon singles that climbed to number one in the weeks following his death in December 1980. The extent of her actual involvement in the creative process is a matter of some conjecture.

Whilst Madonna is breaking new ground for female artists, girl groups are still very much less common in the charts than their male counterparts, so it is worth noting that the current top 75 includes a record five all-girl groups — the Reynolds Girls, Bananarama/Lananeeneenoonoo, Vixen, the Bangles and Fuzzbox.

● After four weeks at number one, during which time it sold upwards of 300,000 copies, Simply Red's 'A New Flame' flickers a little, allowing Gloria Estefan and Miami Sound Machine to claim top billing with 'Anything For You'.

Ostensibly from Miami (hence the name), Gloria and her chums were all born in Cuba. They're not just the first Cubans to top the album chart, they're the first Cubans to chart at all. 'Anything For You' was also a number one album in America in 1987, under the title it still carries there, 'Let It Loose'.

● Depeche Mode's '101' enters the album chart at number five this week, a fact which puts them in a three way tie with Cliff Richard and Elvis Costello as the acts with most top 10 albums in the Eighties. Each has had eight.

Cliff was the first to reach the figure, getting there last November with 'The Private Collection'. Costello followed with 'Spike' last month.

UB40 have had seven top 10 albums in the Eighties, with other albums peaking at number 12, number 14 and number 17, whilst Status Quo have also had seven top 10 albums, and two that stopped at number 12.

● Former British number ones now chart-topping in Europe are Marc Almond and Gene Pitney's 'Something's Gotten Hold Of My Heart' in Germany and Switzerland, Robin Beck's 'The First Time' in Austria and Greece and Simple Minds' 'Belfast Child' in Holland.

Samantha Fox is top in Belgium with 'I Only Wanna Be With You', Deacon

● GLORIA ESTEFAN: "personally, I find these contortion exercises a bit dull"

Blue lead the way in Spain with 'Real Gone Kid' and Will To Power are Finland and Portugal's choice with 'Baby I Love Your Way/Freebird'.

RM POP DANCE CHART: Where it will appear next week, I know not, but here's this week's Top 20: 1 THIS TIME I KNOW IT'S FOR REAL — Donna Summer, 2 KEEP ON MOVIN' — Soul II Soul featuring Caron Wheeler, 3 SLEEP TALK — Alyson Williams, 4 LIKE A PRAYER — Madonna, 5 TOO MANY BROKEN HEARTS — Jason Donovan, 6 THAT'S THE WAY LOVE IS — Ten City, 7 HEY MUSIC LOVER — S'Xpress, 8 STRAIGHT UP

— Paula Abdul, 9 I'D RATHER JAZZ — Reynolds Girls, 10 ONE MAN — Chantelle, 11 TURN UP THE BASS — Tyree featuring Kool Rock Steady, 12 MUSICAL FREEDOM — Paul Simon featuring Adeva, 13 MY PREROGATIVE — Bobby Brown, 14 BURN THE HOUSE DOWN — Living In A Box, 15 LEAVE ME ALONE — Michael Jackson, 16 RESPECT — Adeva, 17 LOVE TRAIN — Holly Johnson, 18 HELP — Bananarama/Lananeeneenoonoo, 19 I BEG YOUR PARDON — Kon Kan, 20 CAN'T STAY AWAY FROM YOU — Gloria Estefan And Miami Sound Machine.
