THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● Kylie Minogue fails by a very narrow margin to become the first woman ever to debut at number one on the singles chart, as 'Hand On Your Heart' enters the listing at number two after just failing to displace the Bangles' 'Eternal Flame'. Only two previous singles by female soloists have debuted at number two: Madonna's 'Like A Prayer' and Kylie's own 'The Loco-Motion'.

The Bangles have now spent four weeks at number one with 'Eternal Flame', thus equalling the record for an all-girl group established in 1976 by Pussycat's 'Mississippi' and matched nine years later by Sister Sledge and 'Frankie'.

Kylie will surely get her turn at the top next week, as the Holly Johnson/Paul McCartney/Gerry Marsden/Christians recording of 'Ferry Cross The Mersey' originally scheduled to be released on Tuesday (2nd) and widely tipped to become an immediate number one has been put back, and will not now be released until next Monday, the 8th.

But, whatever her fate next week, Kylie must be used to being number two by now — she spent 15 weeks as runner-up last year — a record for a calendar year for any artist. Ironically, Kylie would have debuted at number one but for the fact that her record company PWL issued 'Hand On Your Heart' as a cassette single priced at £1.99 — cheaper than chart regulations allow — thus rendering sales of the format null and void. Of the 11,000 cassette singles of 'Hand On Your Heart' to find their way into record shops last week, the majority were sold very quickly. Had her sales been allowed to stand, Kylie would easily have overturned the Bangles' majority, which was only about 1,600. Ironically, the BPI, who establish the chart regulations which Gallup enforce, are actively discussing a reduction in the minimum price of cassette singles to encourage the format to grow beyond its current market share of less than half a percent. When the issue is resolved, expect a flood of cassette singles (with seven inch versions of hits) to become widely available at £1.99. Cassettes bearing the full 12 inch versions of hits (maxi-cassettes) will also become more common, but expect to pay £3.49 or so for them.

● Diana Ross returns to the chart with her 41st solo hit 'Workin' Overtime'. No other woman can match Diana's tally of hit singles. Her nearest rival is Donna Summer, who has had 30 solo hits, shortly to become 31 with the release of 'I Don't Wanna Get Hurt'.

● The million selling European smash 'Bring Me Edelweiss' advances to number 26, earning Edelweiss the distinction of becoming only the third Austrian act to have a top 40 hit in the Eighties, following Opus whose 'Live Is Life' got the ball rolling in 1985, and Falco, who had back-to-back top 10 hits with 'Rock Me Amadeus' and 'Vienna Calling' in 1986.

● Holly Johnson's 'Americanos' dips to number six as his debut album 'Blast' enters the chart at number one, emulating the achievement of his former group Frankie Goes To Hollywood's debut album 'Welcome To The Pleasuredome', which entered the chart at number one in 1984.

Holly is the seventh artist to top the album chart solo and as a member of a group/duo in the Eighties, following Phil Collins, Alison Moyet, Bryan Ferry, Sting, George Michael and Morrissey.

NEWS EXTRA

BROS SPLIT — MORE NEWS

As rm went to press this week, there were stormy developments in the Craig Logan leaving Bros story.

The split is no longer amicable and Craig will be suing the group for a substantial sum of money. He's said to have been offered a £1 million pay off from Bros, but wants more.

"Despite efforts by Matt and Luke to reach an amicable agreement, Craig's demands in relation to his departure were considered unreasonable by the twins," says spokesperson. "Negotiations broke down, but hopefully will continue despite commencement of legal processes by Craig."

Bros will be going into the studio to record a new album without Craig soon and looks likely they'll be touring in the autumn.

PET SHOP BOYS WIN

Pet Shop Boys have won a libel case against Jonathan King, who claimed they ripped off one of their songs from an old Cat Stevens tune.

In his column in The Sun in June 1987, King claimed 'It's A Sin' was copied from Stevens' hit 'Wild World', but in court the owners of The Sun have admitted that had been unjustified in saying such a thing. Pet Shop Boys have been awarded an undisclosed sum of money which they'll be donating to charity.

CHARTFILE USA

Madonna enjoys a third week atop both the singles and albums charts with 'Like A Prayer'. The album has sold over two million copies already, whilst the single has topped the 750,000 mark, and seems likely to become Maddy's third US million selling single, following 'Like A Virgin' and 'Crazy For You'.

Richard Marx makes a sensational debut at number 39 with his latest hit 'Satisfied'. Only one single has debuted higher this year, the aforementioned 'Like A Prayer', so to forecast a number one hit for Marx, who previously topped with 'Hold On To The Nights', would not be too much of a risk.

And debuting at number 65 is 'Into The Night' by Benny Mardones, who spent 20 weeks in the chart and peaked at number 11 in 1980. It is the latest re-issue to be re-issued as a result of becoming a cult favourite in one area of America use radio parlance, it 'broke out' of Phoenix after radio stations there added it to their playlists. The most successful of these apparently randomly revived hits is 'When I'm With You' by Sheriff, which climbed all the way to number one in this year. Another oldie, 'Where Are You Now' by Jimmy Barnes with Synch, climbs to number 27 this week, exactly 50 places higher than its original 1986 peak. It has amassed an impressive total of 23 weeks on the Hot 100 in chart runs.
