THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

► 'Ferry 'Cross The Mersey' pinches a third week at number one, but is waning fast, and seems practically certain to be overtaken next week either by Jason Donovan's new single 'Sealed With A Kiss', which was released on Monday after what seemed like weeks of heavy exposure on TV and radio, or Lynne Hamilton's strongly surging theme from the TV series 'Prisoner: Cell Block H', 'On The Inside'.

Lynne, the girl from Lancashire, who emigrated to Australia, then America, and disappeared as her hit was breaking, was finally found visiting friends in Melbourne, and wound back to Britain to promote 'On The Inside'. She made her 'Top Of The Pops' debut last Thursday, only to be introduced by Simon Mayo as "Lynne Anderson". Nevertheless, the exposure the programme gave to 'On The Inside' hastened its ascent of the chart, and it now stands at number three.

In Australia, 'On The Inside' peaked at number two in 1979, being denied top billing by Racey's 'Lay Your Love On Me'.

● WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS: Queen's 'The Miracle' is a runaway number one on the album chart, after selling over 150,000 copies last week.

Queen thus join Abba, the Police, Genesis, U2 and Simple Minds as the acts to have most number one albums in the Eighties — four. Of these acts, the Police, Genesis, U2 and Simple Minds have had all their albums debut at number one, whilst Queen and Abba have had albums make lesser initial impressions only to later climb to the summit.

With two Seventies chart-toppers also to their credit, Queen have had a total of six number one albums — more than any other group except the Beatles (12 number ones), the Rolling Stones (nine), Abba (eight) and Led Zeppelin (also eight).

NB: Readers checking the validity of my claims on behalf of Queen should beware the Guinness Book Of British Hit Albums, which, on Page 183, omits the Police's two weeks at number one on the album chart (8/15 November 1986) with 'Every Breath You Take — The Singles' and lists five Queen albums as number ones under the group's own entry (P110) but credits only four in the table of acts with most number one albums on Page 170.

● Donna Summer's 'I Don't Wanna Get Hurt' vaults 12 places to number seven this week. Her last single, 'This Time I Know It's For Real', peaked at number two.

Incredibly, Donna has only once before scored back-to-back top 10 hits, these being 'Love's Unkind' and 'I Love You' in 1977/78.

● ALL THE TENS: 'Express Yourself' enters the singles chart at number 10 this week, to become Madonna's 10th single to debut inside the top 10.

● LIKE A SHOT FROM A... The remixed version of 'Sweet Child O' Mine' by Guns N' Roses differs very little from the original released last year — except in terms of chart success.

Then, before 'Paradise City' gave them a higher profile, 'Sweet Child O' Mine' debuted at number 35 and peaked at number 24. This week the remix bullets onto the chart at number 14.

● OUR FRIENDS' ECLECTIC: The occasional alliance between gloomy Gary Numan and Bill Sharpe, the ● QUEEN: "waddya mean we look like we're at an Estate Agents' convention . . ."

keyboards player from Britfunk outfit Shakatak, always seemed unlikely, but it continues and it seems to work.

This week, Bill and Gazza score their fourth joint hit with 'I'm On Automatic', which debuts at number 44. They previously charted with 'Change Your Mind' (number 17 in 1985), 'New Thing From London Town' (number 52 in 1986) and last year's number 34 hit 'No More Lies'.

● With 24 of this week's top 75 available in the format, the promised drive by record companies to popularise the cassette single seems to have materialised — which is more than can be said for their sales, which currently make up just one percent of the singles market. Meanwhile, with all but 11 of this week's top 75 on compact disc, CD singles retain their eight percent share of sales activity.

● Finally, in a particularly cramped area of the chart, where sales differentials this week are minimal, the Beautiful South's 'Song For Whoever' debuts number 35. Had it sold a mere hundred copies less it would have been placed couple of notches lower, thus fulfilling prophetic title of its B-side 'Straight In 37'.

NEWS EXTRA BIG COUNTRY NO SPLIT

Reports in last week's national press claiming Big Country have split up have been strongly denied by the band's record company. Last Thursday's Guardian newspaper an interview with Stuart Adamson blaming the band's trip to Russia last year for del of £200,000 which, it claimed, had forced the band to quit. Recently cancelled Big Country concerts had helped fuel the story, but a spokesman told rm that these were because of Stuart Adamson's throat problems.
