THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● Jason Donovan remains at number one in the singles chart again this week, returning an increased majority over veteran campaigner Cliff Richard.

Last week, when Jason's 'Sealed With A Kiss' debuted at number one, Cliff's much publicised 100th single for EMI entered at number two. For every 100 copies of 'Best' sold, dealers shifted 160 copies of 'Kiss'. This week, with sales of both records up significantly, 'Kiss' beats 'Best' by 162 to 100.

The last time the top two singles were new entries was on 15 December 1984, when Band Aid's 'Do They Know It's Christmas?' debuted a number one, followed by Wham!'s 'Last Christmas' at number two. 'Last Christmas' never managed to gain the upper hand, and it looks like Cliff has a similarly impossible task on his hands. The irony here is that the Donovan single was produced by Stock, Aitken and Waterman.

who have completed a song with Cliff that was seriously considered as his latest single before Cliff himself decided on 'The Best Of Me'. Had he chosen the SAW song, it is wholly possible and quite probable that they'd have delayed Jason's single to allow Cliff easy access to the top spot.

'Sealed With A Kiss' is the third number one single in a row produced by SAW, and the 10th SAW production to reach number one in less than five years. In the whole of chart history only five producers have helped more numbers ones: George Martin and Norrie Paramor are tied at the top of the list with 27 apiece, followed by Mitch Miller (17), Steve Scholes (15) and Chet Atkins (11). Only three other producers have scored a hat-trick of consecutive numbers ones: Mitch Miller (twice), Norrie Paramor (twice) and George Martin, who did it three times, and was the last to do it in 1964.

SAW are also the only producers to have singles by three of their acts debut at number one, Donovan joining Ferry Aid and the recent McCartney/Johnson/Marsden/Christians chart topper.

The last three numbers ones have all been released on Waterman's own label PWL (Pete Waterman Limited), allowing the small independent to join the four majors/former majors in chart history to have scored more than two consecutive number ones.

The last to turn the trick was Decca, who had three in a row in 1965. Before that, Parlophone had a similar run in 1964, Columbia managed four in a row in 1963, and Philips established a record which still stands by monopolising the chart summit for 22 weeks in a row with five different records in 1956.

'Sealed With A Kiss' is the third number one single off Jason Donovan's first album 'Ten Good Reasons', which also remains at number one this week, having sold 600,000 copies in a mere six weeks.

● 'Back To Life (However Do You Want Me)' soars nine notches to number three this week, topping the number five peak of 'Keep On Movin'' to become Soul II Soul's highest charted single to date.

Both these tracks and the earlier 'Fairplay', which reached number 64, and 'Feel Free' (number 63) are taken from the group's debut album 'Club Classics Volume 1', which moves up to number 4 this week.

● Two singles defy convention on this week's singles chart, by reversing their declines. Donna Summer's 'I Don't

● JASON DONOVAN: "oh no, not another number one?"

Wanna Get Hurt' inches up from number 10 to number nine, after reaching number 7 a fortnight ago, whilst Tom Petty's 'I Won't Back Down' makes a more decisive six place upward move to number 29, a week after slipping from number 34 to number 35. And the Jennifer Rush/Placido Domingo single 'Till I Loved You' climbs to number 33 a fortnight after it looked dead when it dipped from number 59 to number 61.

● 'Express Yourself' surprisingly stalls at number five this week. No matter Madonna's 18th Top Five Single her ahead of Abba's Frida and Agnetha as the woman with most five hits in chart history. Ahead of her lie only Elvis Presley (34 top) Cliff Richard (30) and the Beatles. Cliff's total is 32, if his work with Young Ones and Sarah Brightman are included whilst McCartney's career haul, with the Stevie Wonder, Michael Jackson, Ferry Aid and 'Ferry Aid' The Mersey is 39.
