THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

NALYSED BYALANJONES

ve Bunny and the lastermixers' 'Swing The Mood' oves decisively clear of Kylie linogue's 'Wouldn't Change A Thing' the top of the singles chart, leaving the minutive Aussie with very little chance of aching number one. Lil Louis, eanwhile, moves up to number three ith 'French Kiss', which benefitted only arginally from being finally released on ven inch, after a fortnight in the shops 1 12 inch only. Further proress, no pubt, will be hindered by 'Top Of The ops' refusal to recognise the record.

nother impressive move, climbing from amber 13 to number five. It's easily lice's most successful solo single — none his previous unaccompanied outings mbed higher than number 44. He last add the top five as long ago as 1972, hen, as leader of the group that bore his ame, he reached number four with lected'.

Liza Minnelli narrowly pips Big Fun become the highest debutant of the eek with 'Losing My Mind' at number 24. s Liza's first hit, and it's been a long time oming — her very first single was eleased here in 1972.

PBIg Fun have taken rather less time achieve their breakthrough which omes this week via a number 25 debut or their recording of 'Blame It On The cogie'. The single was written and rigina. corded by Englishman Michael ckson in 1978. Jackson abbreviated his rename to Mick, to avoid confusion with we well-known American llama-lover of we same name, and was much distressed then his more famous namesake slapped out a cover version of the song with the Jacksons. The ensuing chart battle resulted in the expected victory for the Jacksons, but it was touch-and-go at one point, with the records listed side-by-side in the chart, Mick at number 15, and the Jacksons at number 14. Mick's recording could climb no higher, but the Jacksons improved their placing to number eight. In recent weeks, former Housemartin Norman Cook has borrowed heavily from 'Blame It On The Boogie' for his hit 'Blame It On The Bassline'.

● Soul II Soul's former number one hit 'Back To Life (However Do You Want Me)' is becoming a major Pan-European smash, and looks set to emulate its British success in a number of countries. This week, it moves up from number four to top the Dutch chart. The group's last single, 'Keep On Movin", was also a number one hit in Holland. The remainder of this week's top 10 in Holland, courtesy of Stitching Nederlanse/Radio Veronica is: 2 (2) LICENCE TO KILL — Gladys Knight & The Pips; 3 (1) NO MORE BOLEROS — Gerarg Joling 4 (6) PATIENCE — Gun N' Roses; 5 (7) DON'T WANNA LOSE YOU -Gloria Estefan; 6 (8) TELL IT LIKE IT IS — Don Johnson; 7 (3) MARINAS — Rocco and the Carnations; 8 (11) BREAKTHRU' — Queen; 9 (5) BATDANCE - Prince; 10 NERGENS GOES GOED VOOR — De Dijk. Also in Holland, Prince's 'Batman' loses top billing on the album chart this week to local talent Lois Lane's self-titled album. Comic book buffs will know that Lois Lane was the name of the girlfriend of Batman's biggest rival in the comic book circulation war, that other guardian of America, Superman.

● LIZA MINNELLI: "after working all these years as Rod Hull's emu, it's nice to have a hit at last"

• Paul McCartney's 'This One' sprints 12 places to number 17, equalling the peak position of his last hit 'My Brave Face'. Macca last had two top 20 hits in a year as long ago as 1984.

● Jody Watley, assisted by Eric B & Rakim, enters the chart at number 41 this week with 'Friends'. Jody was a member of Shalamar when they had a hit in 1982 with a completely different song, also entitled 'Friends'.

CHARTFILE USA EXTRA

• Richard Marx registers his third number one single in America in a little over a year, as his self-penned hit 'Right Here Waiting' replaces Prince's 'Batdance' at the top of the Hot 100, leaving Bobby Brown's 'On Our Own' still at number two. The 25-year-old Marx, from Chicago, first topped the chart in July 1988 with 'Hold On To The Night', and returned to the summit with 'Satisfied' a mere seven weeks ago. The last artist to secure a brace of number ones in such a short period of time was Michael Jackson, who topped first in a duet with Siedah Garrett ('I Just Can't Stop Loving You') and then solo ('Bad') within five weeks towards the end of 1987.

The success of 'Satisfied' and 'Right Here Waiting', the first two singles of Marx's latest self-titled album have hoist it to number three in the album chart tl week. Released three months ago, it ha already sold over two million copies. Confirming Marx's status as one of the hottest new talents in America is the farthat he's only the second artist in the Eighties to reach the top three with his first six solo hits. The first was Whitnithouston, who turned the trick eight times in a row, before 'Love Will Save The Day' raised eyebrows by stopping ascent at number nine.
