THIS WEEK'S CHARTS

ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Jive Bunny and the Mastermixers

'Swing The Mood' continues at number one, leading the new runner-up, 'French Kiss' by Lil Louis, by a huge margin. However, there are signs that the novelty appeal of 'Swing The Mood' is beginning to diminish and, having taken over at number one from one Stock Aitken Waterman creation (Sonia's 'You'll Never Stop Me Loving You') and deprived another one of top billing (Kylie Minogue's 'Wouldn't Change A Thing') it will be under pressure next week from two more — Big Fun's 'Blame It On The Boogie', which surges from number 25 to number eight and Cliff Richard's newly released 'I Just Don't Have The Heart'. Liza Minnelli's 'Losing My Mind', which moves from number 24 to number six this week, is also a possible future number one.

● At number 11, up from number 28, are Black Box with 'Ride On Time', whilst 'Numero Uno' by Starlight debuts at number 39. Both records are Italian creations put together by DJ Daniele Davoli, sound engineer Mirco Limoni and musician Valerio Semplici. Ostensibly provided by 22-year-old model Catherine, the brilliant searing vocals on Black Box's hit are in fact sampled from the 1980 single 'Love Sensation' by Loleatta Holloway and Dan Hartman. Long since deleted in this country, where it was issued on the Salsoul label, 'Love Sensation' is, however, still available from good import shops on two different singles on the Dutch Rams Horn label. A Dutch House Remix of the track is available (catalogue number: RHR 3648) whilst an earlier 12-inch (RHR 3430) provides three versions of the song — the original vocal, instrumental and Shep Pettibone remix — running for a total of nearly 24 minutes.

Significantly less frenetic and melodically dis-similar to 'Ride On Time', except of course, where sampled, 'Love Sensation' is a minor classic, recommended to all those of you who appreciate Ms Holloway's vital but unwitting contribution to Black Box's success. Loleatta is a native of Chicago, who has been recording for nearly 20 years without ever enjoying the success she so richly deserves. One can only hope that 'Ride On Time' will finally elevate her to star status.

'Numero Uno' likewise includes samples — and these are even more obscure. The "one-two-three", "You're Morganised" and Arabic style singing on 'Numero Uno' are all taken from an album 'Cruisin' 1965'.

Altogether 13 'Cruisin' albums were issued — one for each year from 1955 to 1967 — in 1973 and 1974. Each celebrates the music and mood of a specific year, within a recreation of a radio programme popular at that time. The 1965 edition of 'Cruisin' features top Los Angeles morning deejay Robert W. Morgan wisecracking his way through a mock show on 93KHJ. Apart from records by the Righteous Brothers ('You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling'), Shirley Ellis ('The Name Game'), Ramsey Lewis ('The "In" Crowd') and seven others, it also includes contemporary jingles, commercials, promotions and announcements. Should you wish to spot all the Starlight samples for yourself, or simply enjoy the mood of 1965, you should still be able to get this album from most of London's larger record shops.

Starlight and Black Box are just two of a wave of Italian house records expected to hit the charts in the next few weeks. Others include Sueno Latino's record of the same name, Gino Latino (no relation) with 'No Sorry' and the DFC Team's 'I.C. Love Affair'. For the moment, however, the largest concentration of Italian acts in the chart at the same time remains three — a figure achieved just seen weeks ago, when Capella, Clubhouse and Sabrina were all charting simultaneously.

● That well known firm of accountants Deacon, May, Taylor and Mercury

● Madonna's 'Cherish' is the highest debuting single in America for more than two years. It enters the Hot 100 at number 37 this week, equalling the debut position of Michael Jackson and Siedah Garrett's 'I Just Can't Stop Loving You' on 8 August 1987. The last record to debut higher was Maddy's own 'Dress You Up', which entered at number 36 on 17 August 1985. It is also the only single by Madonna to debut at a high position than 'Cherish'. Finally, 'Cherish' the third single of Madonna's higher position than her latest album 'Like a Prayer'. The title track entered at number 38 in March, and 'Express Yourself' its entrance at number 41 in June.

● Queen's latest hit 'The Invisible Man' enters the chart at number 26. It's the third single off their latest album 'The Miracle', and all three have been the highest debuting single on the week entered the chart. 'Breakthru' entered number 13 on 1 July, and 'I Want It That Way' entered at number three on 13 May.
