CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

side On Time' surges further ahead at the top of the singles chart this week, and tough Jason Donovan moves up to number two with 'Every Day (I Love You More)', the big challenge to Black Box next week looks like coming from Richard Marx, whose 'Right Here Waiting' continues its spectacular rise, soaring from number 15 to number three.

Jive Bunny and the Mastermixers' 'Swing The Mood' falls to number four having just become Britain's first platinum single since Jennifer Rush's 'The Power Of Love' in 1985. The sales required to qualify for the award then were one million, now it's 500,000. 'Swing The Mood' makes up for its slow decline here by moving to the top of the charts in Germany, Finland, Denmark and Norway. In Germany, however, it is already under attack from Lil Louis' 'French Kiss', which debuted last week at number six, and is now number two.

Debating at number 43 is the Alarm's double A-sided pairing 'Sold Me Down The River' with a Welsh-language version of the same track, catchily entitled 'Gwerthoch Fi I Lawr Yr Afon'. The latter is the first Welsh language hit in chart history.

The Alarm have now had 12 hits — more than any other group from Wales, but to become the top Welsh act of all, they must pass Shakin' Stevens' tally of 30 hits.

'Love In An Elevator' is Aerosmith's first top 10 hit here, some 14 years after their introductory US Top 40 hit 'Sweet Emotion', though vocalist Steve Tyler and guitarist Joe Perry featured on Run-DMC's top 10 remake of 'Walk This Way', a decade after Aerosmith's original version of the song failed to chart in 1976.

● 'Cherish' is Madonna's 21st top 20 hit, but, with an opening chart rank of 16, it is her lowest debuting single since the ninth, 'Gambler', entered at number 20 on 12 October 1985. Maddy's latest single shares its title with two other hits, and both went on to reach the top 5. David Cassidy's 'Cherish' reached number two in 1972, and Kool & The Gang took the title to number four in 1985.

● After a tricky few weeks, Sydney Youngblood's 'If Only I Could' has blossomed into a major hit. Released two months ago, it has progressed as follows: 135-132-82-49-41-36-17.

● Despite being released in nine different editions, Bon Jovi's latest single, 'Lay Your Hands On Me', is in terminal decline after reaching number 18. It is the fourth top 30 hit off their number one album 'New Jersey'. 'Bad Medicine' reached number 17, 'Born To Be My Baby' got to number 22 and 'I'll Be There For You' peaked at number 18. Since its release almost exactly a year ago, 'New Jersey' has sold half a million copies.

● A record eight artists in this week's singles chart have dispensed with their surnames for recording purposes. They are Damian, Prince, Madonna, Martika, Adeva, Sonia, Michaela and someone who was operating with only a forename long before it became fashionable — Cher.

● 'Revival' was too optimistic a title for Eurythmics' latest single, which dips from its peak of number 26 to number 31. Only one of the duo's last seven hits has made the top 20 — 'You Have Placed A Chill In My Heart', got to number 16 — and they haven't had a top 10 hit since 'Thorn In My Side' over three years ago.

● RICHARD MARX: "waddya mean you thought I was good in 'A Night At The Opera'?"

● With only a matter of weeks to go before the end of the decade, Steven Greenberg's composition 'Funky Town' looks certain to be the only song to bring top 10 success to two acts in the decade who have otherwise not charted. They are Lipps Inc. whose original recording of the song reached number two in 1980, and Pseudo Echo, whose remake peaked at number eight two years ago.

CHARTFILE USA EXTRA

● Gloria Estefan's 'Don't Wanna Lose You' replaces New Kids On The Block's 'Hangin' Tough' at the top of the US singles chart — but the Kids are still celebrating. And why not? Their album of the same name is still America's number one album, and 'Hangin' Tough' has belatedly dented the UK chart.

Furthermore, they have the TWO high debuting singles in America this week, 'Cover Girl' at number 62 and 'Didn't I (Blow Your Mind)' at number 68. The latter-named is a faithful remake of the Delfonics' 1970 hit that has previously appeared only as a bonus track on the CD version of the Kids' 'Hangin' Tough' album, though in the UK it appears as a flip of the single of that name. Standing exactly halfway between 'Didn't I...' and 'Cover Girl' at number 65 in the chart single by the Cover Girls. Doesn't THAT blow your mind?

● Defunct Aussie band Moving Pictures' 'What About Me' climbs to number 53 in the US chart five weeks after it re-entered the Hot 100. When first released in 1982 it climbed to number 29 in a 27 week chart residency. Moving Pictures' Garry Frost is no the group 1927, whose debut hit 'When I Think Of You' recently entered the chart at number 100.
