CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● KATE BUSH: life's a peach

Even though copies of 'Ride On Time' featuring the original Loleatta Holloway samples are becoming scarce — over three-quarters of all copies of the record sold last week were of the 'remix', which, as stated before, is in fact exactly the same instrumentally, but with a vastly inferior new vocalist replacing the estimable Miss H — the Black Box single is number one for a fourth week, and by a very comfortable margin.

The record has now vaulted to number two in the year-to-date singles rankings, where, admittedly, it trails way behind live Emmy and the Mast Mixers 'Swing The Mood'. The remainder of the top 20, which, you will note, includes eight Stock Aitken Waterman productions, reads: 3 ETERNAL FLAME — Bangles; 4 TOO MANY BROKEN HEARTS — Jason Donovan; 5 SOMETHING'S GOTTEN HOLD OF MY HEART — Marc Almond & Gene Pitney; 6 BACK TO LIFE — Soul II Soul; 7 HAND ON YOUR HEART — Kylie Minogue; 8 LIKE A PRAYER — Madonna; 9 LOVE CHANGES EVERYTHING — Michael Ball; 10 YOU'LL NEVER STOP ME LOVING YOU — Sonia; 11 THE DRIVING YEARS — Mike & The Mechanics; 12 FERRY 'CROSS THE MERSEY — Various; 13 MISS YOU LIKE CRAZY — Natalie Cole; 14 THIS TIME I KNOW IT'S FOR REAL — Donna Summer; 15 WOULDN'T CHANGE A THING — Kylie Minogue; 16 SELF A CHILD — Simple Minds; 17 REQU... 4 — London Boys; 18 DEAL WITH A KISS — Jason Donovan; 19 STRAIGHT UP — Paula Abdul; 20 SPECIALLY FOR YOU — Kylie and ason.

● Welcome back to Erasure, whose 'Drama!' enters at number six. It's their first single since the EP 'Crackers International' (featured track 'Stop!') last December. It also beats that record's debut position of number seven to become the duo's highest new entry ever.

Kate Bush is back too, thundering in at number 12 with her first single in three years, 'Sensual Days'. Kate's disc did exceptionally well early last week, but sales faded towards the weekend, and with them went the record's challenge to become Ms Bush's highest ever new entry — a perch held by 'Running Up That Hill', which debuted at number nine.

Both Erasure and Kate topped the chart with their last triple platinum albums, as did Terence Trent D'Arby (whose rather odd pseudonymous single 'The Birth Of Maudie', credited to "The Incredible EG O'Reilly", enters the chart at number 93 this week) and all three acts currently have long-awaited follow-ups scheduled for release on 16 October. If they all stick to this date it will be interesting to see who triumphs — and how low Kylie Minogue's album, due a week earlier — will fall in what is bound to be the most fiercely competitive week of the chart year.

● Another artist to hit the comeback trail in a big way this week is Billy Joel. His new single, 'We Didn't Start The Fire', debuts at number 29. It is his first hit of any kind since 1986, and his first top 30 entry in over five years.

A stunning aural montage namechecking scores of people and events of the latter half of the 20th century, Joel's single, not unnaturally, includes among its references the names of many other chart-makers — eight of them if we allow "Beatlemania" to represent the Beatles — but it is still a long way from being the most name-dropping hit of all-time. That honour falls to Reunion's 1974 hit 'Life Is A Rock' (But The Radio Rolled Me), wherein the verses, all sung at breakneck speed, are no more than lists, with record companies ("CBS and Warner Brothers, RCA and all the others"), musical instruments ("Fender Bass"), song titles ("Sugar Sugar", "Honey Honey") historical personalities ("Jack The Ripper") and individual group members ("Noddy Holder") all rating mentions amongst a double-album's worth of hitmakers. The best estimate I can give of the number of hitmakers actually namechecked is more than 40, as even repeated listening to this novelty hit (perpetrated by the same team responsible for late sixties' hits by the Kasenzatz Katz Singing Orchestral Circus, Ohio Express, the Lemon Pipers and many others) leaves some passages too indistinct to decipher. It's interesting to note that the only hitmaker mentioned on both the Reunion and Billy Joel hits is sometime actress, now recluse, Doris Day.

● As a member of Echo & The Bunnymen, Ian McCulloch had consecutive top 50 hits, a run which continued right up to the dissolution of group, yet both of his solo hits have perished at number 51.

Four years ago, whilst still with the group, McCulloch's sombre version of Kurt Weill's 'September Song' fell just one rung short of the fabulous 50, and though his self-penned single 'Proud To Fall' — the first offering from his excellent introductory solo album 'Candleland' — debuted at number 51 three weeks ago its only progress has been downwards, culminating in its disappearance from the chart this week. Expect 'Candleland', which came out on Monday to do better.
