CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Black Box proves too strong for technotronics once again this week, claiming a fifth week at number one with their single 'Ride On Time'. Black Box's predecessors at number one, Jive Bunny and the Mastermixers, were also top for five weeks. The last two consecutive number ones spent more than four weeks at number one was the end of 1983.

BROS: "Here Matt, I think there's something dodgy on your shoe"

'Chocolate Box' is the week's highest new entry at number nine, but the fact it doesn't go in any higher seems to confirm a general consensus that Bros are past their peak. Their last single, 'Too Much', debuted at number two at the end of July and immediately went into a steep decline. 'Chocolate Box' seems to have little going for it, and appears to be doomed to a similarly swift and downwardly spiralling start. Three other Bros singles have debuted inside the top 10: 'I Quit' at number four in September 1988 and 'Cat Amongst The Pigeons/Silent Night' at number two in December 1988.

● Fastest climber this week is Milli Vanilli's 'Girl I'm Gonna Miss You', which soars 42 places from number 66 to number 24. The record was recently a number one hit in the USA.

● Tears For Fears' 'The Seeds Of Love' becomes the fourth album to debut at number one in as many weeks, taking the crown after selling more than 100,000 copies. Tears For Fears also topped the chart in 1983 with 'The Hurting', whilst their last album 'Songs From The Big Chair' reached number two. It was deprived of top billing by Phil Collins' five week topper 'No Jacket Required'. Ironically, Phil is drummer on 'Woman In Chains' on the new TFF album.

● Madonna's 'Cherish' single continues to fall, dipping another three notches to number 10, but her album 'Like A Prayer', having soared from number 26 to number nine last week, climbs again to number 5. The reason for this apparent paradox is that Maddy's record company is spending £300,000 on promoting 'Like A Prayer' on TV, a move which should ensure that it tops a million sales before Christmas.

● Last week I suggested that Jason Donovan's album 'Ten Good Reasons' was the third best seller by an Aussie in the UK, with sales of over 750,000. That remains the case, but its sales are higher than I had anticipated, with Jason's label PWL claiming 970,000.

CHARTFILE USA EXTRA

Janet Jackson secures her second US number one hit with 'Miss You Much'. Janet also reached number one in 1986 with 'When I Think Of You'. Both records were written and produced by Jimmy 'Jam' Harris and Terry Lewis, who performed the same duties on Human League's 1986 number one 'Human'.

● Singlehandedly challenging the US chart supremacy of LA & Babyface, songwriter Diane Warren has four hits on the US Hot 100 this week. Diane penned Cher's 'If I Could Turn Back Time' (number five), 'When I See You Smile' by Bad English (number 33) plus new entries from Milli Vanilli ('Blame It On The Rain' at number 65) and Patti LaBelle ('If You Asked Me To' at number 86). Diane also wrote two songs that are likely to enter the chart next week — Barbra Streisand's 'We're Not Making Love Anymore' and Jets' 'The Same Love' plus 'Bed Of Nails', a new entry to the UK chart this week for Alice Cooper.

The Patti LaBelle single, incidentally, is the first hit off the 'Licence To Kill' soundtrack in America, Gladys Knight's title track having inexplicably failed. In Britain, where, of course, Gladys had a top five hit, Patti's single bombed out badly a few weeks ago.

● Paula Abdul establishes a new record this week, finally climbing to the top of the US album chart with 'Forever Your Girl'. The album has been charted for 64 weeks, comprehensively smashing the old record of 58 weeks to reach number one established by 'Fleetwood Mac' in 1976.

● PAULA ABDUL: "anyone got any fertiliser, these roses are looking a bit sad?"

Paula has already had three number one singles in America this year with 'Straight Up', 'Forever Your Girl' and 'Coldhearted' — more than any other — and is shooting for a fourth with '(It's Just) The Way That You Love Me', which climbs to number 39 this week, a 49 place improvement on the lowly peak it scaled when first issued last year. All four single plus 'Knocked Out', which peaked at number 41, are included on 'Forever Your Girl', which has sold over three million copies.

● New Kids On The Block already have three singles in the Hot 100, and are about to make it four with CBS in America rush releasing 'This One's For The Children' off their forthcoming seasonal album 'Merry, Merry Christmas'. For all their US success, the Kids still mean very little here, with 'Hangin' Tough' slipping from its pole position of number 52 to number 70 this week.

NEWS EXTRA DEAD END STREET

Despite recent rumours Morrissey says he hasn't used his old producer Stephen Street on his forthcoming single 'Ouija Board' which is due out soon. Instead Morrissey has teamed up with Clive Langer and Alan Winstanley, who in the past have worked with Elvis Costello and Madness.

NO LOC

Tone Loc has cancelled his five date tour which was due to open in Leeds on October 9.

"Tone Loc is suffering from ill health," says a spokesperson without specifying Tone's particular complaint. "A new tour itinerary will be scheduled for early in the New Year."
