CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

In the past five years, eight singles have managed to spend five weeks at number one, but none has managed to hold on for a sixth week. This week, however, Black Box do just that, returning to a comfortable majority yet again with their debut single 'I'm On Time'. The last record to spend weeks on top was Stevie

Nicks' million selling 'I Just Called To Say I Love You' which completed its chart-topping exploits five years ago this very week.

The last act to spend more than five weeks at number one with its debut hit including 'You're The One That I Want', which was John Travolta's first hit, was Olivia Newton-John's was I've Got A Feeling, whose 'I Hear You Knocking' was on top for six weeks in 1970.

The continuing strength of 'Ride On Time' is bad news for Technotronics' 'Hump Up The Jam' and Sydney Youngblood's 'If Only I Could', both of which suffered sales reversals last week, but have probably lost their chance of reaching number one. The new favourite to become the next chart topper must be Jive Bunny and the New Generation's 'That's What I Like' which debuts this week at number four.

Curiosity Killed The Cat's 'Name And Number' dips two places to number 16 this week, even though its sales are increased by 40 per cent. 'Name And Number' had looked likely to give The Cats their first top 10 hit since 'Misfit' in July 1987 but had the misfortune to be caught in a very strong area of the chart week.

Express are still teetering on the brink of maintaining their string of top 20 hits, as 'Mantra For A State Of Mind' holds at number 21. Apart from useful 'Top Of The Pops' exposure, the record was prevented from going down this week by the release of yet another 12-inch single featuring new mixes — the FOURTH to date.

● Having originally peaked at number 59 a couple of months ago, Sybil's update of the Burt Bacharach/Hal David song 'Don't Make Me Over' climbs strongly from number 153 to number 41 this week.

● Billy Joel's 'We Didn't Start The Fire' climbs to number eight, and is the only American single in the top 10. The Yanks have been less successful in the chart of late than they normally are, and only two of this year's 13 number ones have been by Americans — Madonna's 'Like A Prayer' and, most recently, the Bangles' 'Eternal Flame', the latter disc vacating the number one position nearly six months ago. The longest gap between number one hits by Americans in chart history is one of 46 weeks between Elvis Presley's '(You're The) Devil In Disguise' in 1963 and Roy Orbison's 'It's Over' the following year.

● His last three singles all debuted in the top 10, but Cliff Richard's new hit, 'Lean On Me' bows more quietly at number 28. It was written and produced by Alan Tarney, Cliff's long-time collaborator, who was also responsible for hits like 'Dreamin'' (1980), 'We Don't Talk Anymore' (1983), 'A Little In Love' (1984) and 'Some People' (1987).

● Belinda Carlisle scores her biggest hit since 'Circle In The Sand' as 'Leave A

● BELINDA CARLISLE: "Do you like me jumper? Me mum knitted it, so I wear it to keep her happy"

'Light On' soars from number 28 to number 14. Belinda, who topped the chart with 'Heaven Is A Place On Earth' is assisted on her new single by another artist who has had number ones — George Harrison, who supplies the guitar solo.

● On only its second week in the chart, Bros' single 'Chocolate Box' falls from number nine to number 15. It's the third Bros single in a row to fail to advance any higher than its debut position.

● Tracy Chapman's 'Crossroads' is the fifth album to debut as number one in as many weeks — a new chart record. 'Crossroads' sold over 80,000 copies last week to become Ms Chapman's second number one album. Her debut LP, 'Tracy Chapman', topped the chart 15 months ago and has so far sold over a million copies.

Working backwards from 'Crossroads' the albums to debut at number one in the past five weeks are: 'Tears For Fears' 'Seeds Of Love', Tina Turner's 'Foreign Affair', Eurythmics' 'We Too Are One' and the Original Cast album 'Aspects Of Love'.

Whilst all the other albums mentioned above spawned at least one top 30 hit before they were released, Chapman's album succeeds despite the fact that its introductory single — the title track — peaked at number 61 last week, though was aggressively marketed in no fewer than seven different editions. It dips to number 75 this week, and provides proof positive that album success and singles success don't necessarily go hand-in-hand. Meanwhile, Tina Turner's 'Foreign Affair', which holds at number two, has already sold over 200,000 copies.

NEWS EXTRA CAN YOU KEEP A SECRET?

The Rolling Stones and Aerosmith are both rumoured to be doing secret gigs next month.

We hear that Aerosmith are planning a surprise concert at the London Marquee before their proper British tour gets underway and the Rolling Stones are planning a concert at the London Royal Albert Hall, as a warm-up for their full-scale tour due to hit Britain next year. More details when we get 'em,
