CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Jive Bunny And The Mastemixers

'That's What I Like' registers a third week at number one, again enjoying a considerable advantage over the number two record, 'Girl, I'm Gonna Miss You' by Milli Vanilli.

'That's What I Like' has now sold over 300,000 copies, while Jive Bunny's first single 'Swing The Mood' has topped 700,000, bringing their collective sales to date to over a million. 'Swing The Mood' is showing astonishing tenacity for a novelty hit. Most go into steep decline shortly after they pass their peak, but 'Swing The Mood' arrests its decline for the second time this week, climbing from number 33 to number 29, on its 17th week in the chart.

'Swing The Mood' has been an enormous success, reaching the top 20 in every country in Europe, and is still number one in Norway. It has also charted in America, where it climbs strongly this week, from number 91 to number 74.

● Chris Rea finally lands a top 10 hit this week, over 11 years after he first charted with 'Fool (If You Think It's Over)'. Of his 17 previous hits, the most successful were 'Let's Dance' and 'On The Beach Summer '88', both of which peaked at number 12.

● 'State Of Mind' by Fish dips from its debut position of number 32 to number 36. He therefore fails to equal the success of his ... while colleagues Marillion's recent single 'Hooks On You', which reached number 30.

● 'Room In Your Heart' climbs to number five this week, equalling the peak position of Living In A Box's previous biggest hit, their eponymous 1987 debut.

● Aiming for her eighth consecutive top two hit, Kylie Minogue makes a disappointing chart entry with 'Never Too Late' debuting at number 17. Kylie has made a better start to her chart career than any other act, but 'Never Too Late' is ominously slow off the starting blocks.

As ever, Kylie's new hit is written and produced by Stock Aitken Waterman, who've had major disappointments with their last two hits, Donna Summer's excellent 'Love's About To Change My Heart' peaking at number 20, and Sonia's 'Can't Forget You' reaching number 17. It's much too early to suggest — as some have — that the SAW bubble has burst, but it has developed a slow puncture that needs fixing.

● Last week in Chartfile I reported that Jermaine Jackson's 'Don't Take It Personal' entered the chart just as sister Janet's 'Miss You Much' ended its brief chart career, observing that "this is the closest we've come yet to having two members of this celebrated family in the chart with simultaneous solo hits." This week, Janet secures her second hit from 'Rhythm Nation', as the title track enters at number 42 but — you've guessed it — Jermaine's 'Don't Take It Personal' dips out of sight.

CHARTFILE USA EXTRA

● Phil Collins' quest for a third consecutive number one starts well, with 'Another Day In Paradise' debuting at number 43. Phil topped the chart with both 'A Groovy Kind Of Love' and 'Two Hearts' last year.

● Mike Tyson becomes the second World Heavyweight Boxing Champion to be namechecked in the title of a hit record this week, as DJ Jazzy Jeff's slightly boastful 'I Think I Can Beat Mike Tyson' debuts at number 92. Britain's Johnny Wakelin scored a number 21 hit in 1975 with 'Black Superman' — "Muhammed Ali".

● Roxette's 'Listen To Your Heart' climbs to the top of the Hot 100 this week, earning the Stockholm-based duo the honour of being the first Swedish act to have more than one number one hit. They previously topped the chart with 'The Look' in April.

Two other acts from Sweden have each had one chart topper — Blue Swede and Abba.

● Rebel MC & Double Trouble's 'Street Tuff' dips to number four this week, having apparently peaked at number three last week. I say apparer because it reached number five three weeks ago, and slipped to number six before recovering to reach number th Whether it gets any higher or not, it is now the highest charted British rap hit that is if we exclude the Pet Shop Boys' deadpan spoken not rhythmic number one 'West End Girls' from our calculations.

● Cher's latest hit 'If I Could Turn Back Time' slips a notch to number seven, but its success takes her span of top 10 hits over 24 years. Of all the many thousands of artists who've had hit records, only have attained longer spans of top 10 success via new recordings, as opposed re-issues and remixes — Cliff Rich and Frank Sinatra.

● Purists will frown at the remix of Luther Vandross' 'Never Too Late' but the 1989 update of his 1983 introductory hit climbs to number 19 this week — that's 25 places higher than the original, and enough to make it his second biggest hit to date, trailing only 1987's 'Really Don't Mean It', which reached number 16.
