CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

Forget New Kids On The Block — they're New Kids On The Brink. Last week, they topped the chart by the smallest of margins when their single 'You Got It (The Right Stuff)' outsold Lisa Stansfield's 'All Around The World' by around 500 copies. This week, they trailed Linda Ronstadt and Aaron Neville's 'Don't Know Much' all week, only to surge past it at the last moment, to end up well ahead and earn a second week at number one.

Even so, 'You Got It' has sold fewer than 200,000 copies to date, a minuscule quantity for a number one record, but one that is now becoming commonplace.

● Radio is to wave a fond farewell to the decade by broadcasting the top 80 of the Eighties. I've just finished compiling the chart — late big sellers excepted — and it's noticeable that the singles market is so depressed that only two of the records listed are 1989 releases, Black Box's 'Ride On Time' leading the way just ahead of Jive Bunny And The Mastermixers's 'Swing The Mood'. Nothing else comes near.

In fact, these are the only hits from this year (excluding 1988 releases like Kylie and Jason's 'Especially for You' and Cliff Richard's 'Mistletoe And Wine' (both of which charted into the new year) to sell over 500,000 copies — out of a total of 160. 1980s singles to reach the mark. Number three best seller of 1989, the Bangles's 'Eternal Flame', is the decade's 161st biggest hit. The remainder of this year's top 10 singles — and this is the last update I'll be giving before the year-end recap — is as follows: 4 'Too Many Broken Hearts' — Jason Donovan, 5 'Something's Gotten Hold Of My Heart' — Marc Almond and Gene Pitney, 6 'Back To Life

(However Do You Want Me)' — Soul II Soul, 7 'Pump Up The Jam' — Technotronic featuring Felly, 8 'Hand On Your Heart' — Kylie Minogue, 9 'That's What I Like' — Jive Bunny And The Mastermixers, 10 'Like A Prayer' — Madonna. In 11th place is Sydney Youngblood's 'If Only I Could'.

● Aaron Neville and Linda Ronstadt's 'All I Know' may not now reach number one, but Aaron's disappointment must be tempered by the fact that the Neville Brothers's version of Bob Dylan's 'With God On Our Side' — to all intents and purposes a solo by Aaron — continues to battle its way towards chart respectability. This week it comes to rest at number 50, a 15 notch improvement on last week. A possible off-the-wall contender for the Christmas number one position, it is the longest seven-inch hit of the year, checking in at six minutes and 37 seconds. Even as the Neville Brothers attract the bookies' attention, they must be counting the profits they made from Lionel Bart's 'Happy Endings (Give Yourself A Pinch)', a popular choice which nevertheless goes into premature decline this week, dipping from number 68 to number 77.

● A late but worthy contender for worst record of the year, Bruno Brookes and Liz Kershaw's remake of the old Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrel hit 'It Takes Two, Baby' enters the chart at number 53. The last hit to feature two Radio 1 DJs in tandem was 'Convpy GB', a 1976 number four hit for Laurie Lingo and The Dipsticks, better known as Dave Lee Travis and Paul Burnett.

Bruno and Liz's record is one of three

● RICHARD MARX: "I knew my rap version of 'Das Kapital' would have been a bigger hit than 'Angelia', but they wouldn't listen to me" in the top 200 to benefit the BBC's Children In Need Appeal, along with The Children In Need Choir's 'If You Want To Help' (number 78) and Gloria Hunniford's 'Pudsey's Picnic' (number 111).

● Status Quo's recent single 'Not At All' was the least successful of all their 40 hits, peaking at number 50. It's a performance which doesn't auger well for their new album 'Perfect Remedy', which debuts weakly at number 49 this week.

● After the success of his last single, 'Right Here Waiting', which reached number two, Richard Marx must have thought his UK career was on the up. No so — 'Angelia' crashes to number 69 this week, a fortnight after climbing to number 45. In America, it is 25-year-old Richard's seventh straight top 10 smash.

● The bigger they come, the harder they fall. This very week in 1980, Spandau Ballet were enjoying their first ever hit with 'To Cut A Long Story Short'. Nir years on, 'Empty Spaces' drifts down to number 94 to number 98, and looks to become the group's first single to fall short of the top 75, after 20 consecutive hits — and the going is getting tough!

● Terence Trent D'Arby too. Following the no-show of his pseudonymous single 'The Birth Of Maudie', Terry must have had more confidence in the success of 'This Side Love', which was issued under his own name. If so, it would appear that his confidence was misplaced, as it slithers from its debut position of number 83 to number 100 this week. It's the first since from Terence's latest album 'Neither Fish Nor Flesh', which dips out of the chart week after only four weeks in the list during which time it climbed no higher than number 12. D'Arby's previous all 'Introducing The Hardline According To ...' spent eight weeks at number one sold over 1,500,000 copies — 25 times what 'Neither Fish Nor Flesh' has thus managed.
