CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART
ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

● Bros: "I think I'll have a fiver on Jive Bunny"

The silly season has arrived! While New Kids On The Block stay at number one for a third week in a row, narrowly defeating the challenge of both Jeff Wayne and the duo of Linda Ronstadt and Aaron Neville, the remainder of the chart is in turmoil, as contenders for the coveted Christmas number one spot jockey for position.

Among the 10 singles debuting inside the top 40 (a record intake) are three by acts who've already had a number one hit this year. Leading the way at number five is Soul II Soul, with 'Get A Life', their belated follow-up to the chart-topping Back To Life. The other acts to have a 1989 number one, Jason Donovan and Simple Minds, debut at number seven and number 18 respectively.

Donovan's latest hit, 'When You Come Back To Me', is his fifth top 10 solo hit in little more than a year (he also topped the chart in a duet with Kylie Minogue) — and it is the 35th top 10 hit written by Mike Stock, Matt Aitken and Pete Waterman, a total which includes 12 in each of the last two years. Altogether, SAW have written and/or produced 92 top 75 hits and sold over 10 million singles since 1984.

The success of Jason, Erasure, Queen and most of this week's other newcomers was predictable, as they have good track records — not so Andy Stewart's 29-year-old novelty disc 'Donald, Where's Your Troosers'. Recently popularised all over again by Radio 1's Simon Mayo on his breakfast show, it enters the chart this week at number 30, seven places higher than its 1960 chart peak.

Meanwhile, joining Andy as a possible left-field contender for the Christmas number one is Max Bygraves, whose version of 'White Christmas' debuts at number 72 this week. At 67, Max is the third oldest solo singer to have a hit: Actor Walter Brennan was a month short of his 68th birthday when his monologue 'Old Rivers' flowed into the chart in 1962, and Louis Armstrong was a couple of weeks shy of the same birthday when he shone with 'Sunshine Of Love' in 1968. But Maxie is still a record-breaker, easily shattering Eartha Kitt's previously unrivalled span of hits. Eartha first charted in 1955, and returned to the chart earlier this year in partnership with Bronski Beat. Max featured in Britain's very first chart on 14 November 1952 with 'Cowpunchers' Cantana'. It's appropriate that the song with which he breaks Eartha's record is 'White Christmas'. Written in 1942 by Irving Berlin, who died earlier this year at the grand old age of 101, it is now the most successful song in chart history, Max's being the EIGHTH different version to reach the chart, five of them in the 1980s.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER ONE ODDS

- 11/8 Jive Bunny
- 2/1 Band Aid '89
- 4/1 Andy Stewart
- 9/2 Jason Donovan
- 7/1 Soul II Soul
- 8/1 Max Bygraves
- 12/1 Simple Minds
- 12/1 Cliff Richard/Van Morrison
- 16/1 Erasure
- 16/1 Kaoma
- 20/1 Jeff Wayne
- 20/1 Tina Turner
- 20/1 Lionel Bart
- 25/1 Rob & Raz (featuring Leila K)
- 25/1 Madge & Harold
- 25/1 Bros
- 33/1 Bar

John, who has shared chart glory with 19 partners.

'Whenever God Shines His Light' is Cliff's fourth top 40 hit of the year, but Van hasn't scored a top 40 hit since 1979 when he registered twice in three months as lead singer of the group Them.

● A good week for the Dutch family Liebrand, with Ben's radical remix of Jeff Wayne's 'Eve Of The War' climbing number three, and sister Rita's Alexander O'Neil's 'Hitmix' debut at number 38. Even allowing for the heavy British influence in Holland, Ben and Rita are unusual names for the Netherlands. The explanation is simple: Ben and Rita's mum is a Scot.

CHARTFILE USA

● Billy Joel claims his third number one hit this week with 'We Didn't Start The Fire' unseating Milli Vanilli's this week topper 'Blame It On The Rain'. Billy previously topped in 1980 with 'It's Still Rock And Roll To Me', and again in 1979 with 'Tell Her About It'. He wrote all three songs, and, indeed, the other 26 of his 40 hits he has accumulated since 1974.

● Highest new entry of the week is 'T Me Why' by Exposé, which debuts at number 67. The Miami-based female trio are hoping it will be their eighth consecutive top 10 hit Stateside, while in Britain they have yet to register a single top 75 entry.

NEWS EXTRA: BAND AID II

Lisa Stansfield, Kylie Minogue, Jason Donovan and Bros were some of the stars who gathered together to record a new version of Band Aid's 1984 'Do They Know It's Christmas?' at the weekend. The single also features Bananarama, who were featured on the original version.

With famine again threatening Ethiopia, Bob Geldof, who masterminded original Band Aid Project, phoned Pete Waterman and within 24 hours a recording session at SAW's London studio was arranged.

"Ethiopia is in a worse state than it was last year, so everybody is getting together to help," said Kylie.

Band Aid 89's single, which has a faster dancier feel than the original, is due out the shops next Monday and it's hoped that it will raise at least £1 million for Ethiopia.

Jason Donovan will also be starring in a special one off concert at the London Royal Albert Hall on December 15. The show will raise money for the Royal Marsden Children's Hospital Cancer Unit Campaign and among the other performers appearing will be the London Boys, Sonia, Sinitta and Reid. Tickets priced at £10, £12.50 and £15 are on sale now from the Royal Albert Hall box office or usual agents.
