CHARTS

THIS WEEK'S CHART ANALYSED BY ALAN JONES

New Kids On The Block hang tough at the top of the chart this week, so once again Kylie Minogue is deprived of the opportunity of becoming the first woman in chart history to have a single debut at number one.

Instead, 'Tears On My Pillow' is the fourth of Kylie's eight solo singles to debut at number two, following 'The Loco-Motion', 'Hand On Your Heart' and 'Wouldn't Change A Thing'. 'Especially For You', her duet with Jason Donovan, also entered the chart at number two. The only other woman to have a single debut at number two is Madonna, who turned the trick last year with 'Like A Prayer'

A_I rom Kylie, the biggest challenge to New Kids On The Block comes from Touch Me' by the 49er's, an Italian group fronted by Dawn Mitchell. We can reveal exclusively that though she appears on 'Top Of The Pops' and other TV shows lip-synching to 'Touch Me', most of the vocals are sampled from old records.

In fact, though the 49er's supply the instrumental track for 'Touch Me', much of the vocal verses are sampled from Aretha Franklin's 'Rock-A-Lott' (an Arista single from 1987), while the chorus is lifted off Alisha Warren's single 'Touch Me', released on RCA last July.

Admitting this lastest instance of Italian asset-stripping, Nick Harris of the 49er's UK record label Fourth & Broadway says that Dawn, who was raised in Brixton, but now lives in Italy: "does not sing on 'Touch Me', but will definitely be the veralist on their next single. She's a goo. Italian in Italy: "a single in Italy

● Two years after her debut hit 'Mandinka', Sinéad O'Connor returns to the top 40 with 'Nothing Compares 2

U', written by Prince. A powerful piece of paisley passion originally recorded by The Family in 1985, it draws a magnificent vocal performance from Sinéad, who is sympathetically and . surprisingly supported instrumentally by Soul II Soul. It boasts a promotional video of striking simplicity, in which the camera lingers for all but a few seconds on Sinéad's face. And in it Sinéad appears sad, then genuinly distressed before tears trickle first from her left eye, then her right. Given that it was shot in one take, with no "cutaways" during which glycerine could have been applied to her eyes to fake the tears, it is clearly a song which stirs genuine deep emotions in Sinéad and provokes a sympathetic reaction from viewers. Genuinely heartrending, and a top five hit of the future.

 After major hits as a member of Bronski Beat The Communards, Band Aid II and a duet with June Miles Kingston, Jimmy Somerville's first solo single 'You Make Me Feel (Mighty Real)' is a great success, moving up this week from number 24 to number five, thereby eclipsing the number eight peak of Sylvester's original recording of the song. Sharing chart space with 'You Make Me Feel' back in October 1978 (they also shared the same chart peak, and both were in the listings for 15 weeks) was Dan Hartman's 'Instant Replay' which, coincidentally returns to the chart this week in a new version by hotly tipped duo Yell!

● Their first single in very nearly two years, The Mission's 'Butterfly On A Wheel' is also shaping up to become their biggest hit. It moves from its debut position of number 17 to number 12 this week. None of their previous seven hits reached the top 10, the closest, 'Wasteland', peaking at number 11, and 'Tower Of Strength' at number 12.

- Both Chartfile and This Week's Chart fell victim to a number of computer inputting errors last week, though they left me free from faults. The main corrections are
- The five Bob Dylan songs to chart in the final third of 1989 included 'Everything Is Broken' (off his highly successful album 'Oh Mercy') and Randy Crawford's recording of 'Knocking On Heaven's Door'.
- New Kids On The Block were the first act to have two simultaneous top 10 singles since Wham! exactly four $y \in \mathbb{R}$ previous, when they turned the trick fortnight ago.

- The newly released Carpenter album is called 'Lovelines', and Halo James' current hit 45 'Could Have You So' runs to 10 editions, not 10 editors!
- The main beneficiaries of the declinfluence of British records in Swede the Americans, whose share of chart action last year climbed from 21.9 pt to 35.2 percent. The year's number single was Madonna's 'Like A Prayer' the number one producers were St Aitken and Waterman, who pi 14 top 20 hits.

AIDS ALBUM

Pet Shops Boys, Neneh Cherry and Fine Young Cannibals are among stars being approached to record versions of classic songs written by famous musical writer Cole Porter, for an album to raise money for l care.

The double album will feature around 20 tracks and we underst that Fine Young Cannibals are working on a version of 'Love For S and The Thompson Twins have recorded a version of 'Who Wants To | Milliannies'

A television show, 'The Cole Porter AIDS Special', will also broadcast on International AIDS Day, December 1, on a yet to announced channel. The man behind the project is Malcolm Gerrie, producer of 'Wired' and 'The Tube'.
