CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

DMadonna registers her seventh Jumber One single this week with Jogue'. Only five artists in the whole 37 ear history of the charts have had more; The Beatles and Elvis Presley eading the way with 17 apiece, followed by Cliff Richard with 12, Abba with ine and The Rolling Stones with light.

Maddy is way ahead of all other female oloists. Sandie Shaw. Whitney louston and Kylie Minogue all hare second place with just three number upes each.

Madonna has sold over six million ingles in the UK in the last 6½ years—nore in any other act in the same period.

■ Taking its third leap of more than 10 places in as many weeks, Alannah*Yets' debut hit 'Black Velvet' soars to number three.

The young singer from Toronto is the irst Canadian woman to have a Top 10 it in this country since Patsy Gallant eached number six with 'From New York o L.A.' in 1978.

D UB40's remake of Kendrick Patrick's reggae hit 'Kingston Town' is inother big mover, climbing to number our — a massive improvement on the beak of their last single 'Here I Am (Come And Take Me)', which stopped at number 16 in February.

The group's fortunes see-saw more han most. Before 'Here I Am' bombed hey released 'Homely Girl', which peaked it nur six, and before that 'I Would Do Fo. ou', which reached only number 45.

Still, even the limited success of the atter disc must have been a relief, coming immediately after 'Come Out To Play', the very first UB40 single to peak shy of the top 75.

'Kingston Town' is the group's biggest hit since 'Don't Break My Heart' reached number three in 1985, and their 13th Top 10 hit in all, a higher tally than any other group that started its chart career in the Eighties (Madness, whose first success came at the very end of 1979 have had 15 Top 10 hits).

- 'Escapade' is the fourth hit off Janet Jackson's latest album 'Rhythm Nation 1814' and, standing at number 18, it's just about the biggest, eclipsing 'Miss You Much' (number 22), 'Rhythm Nation' (number 23), and 'Come Back To Me' (number 20). Despite housing these four top 30 hits, 'Rhythm Nation 1814' has thus far sold fewer than 200,000 copies.
- Kim Wilde's first single in a year, 'It's Here', makes a quiet start, debuting at number 52. It's Kim's 19th solo hit, a tally which puts her equal with Cilla Black, Sandie Shaw and Kate Bush in fourth place amongst British solo female hitmakers behind Petula Clark. Shirley Bassey and Dusty Springfield.
- Following the failure of Big Fun to crack the top 20, and of Kakko to reach the top 100, Stock Aitken Waterman face their third big disappointment in weeks with Jason Donovan's 'Hang On To Your Love'.

The song, which they wrote and produced, edges up a single notch to number eight this week despite being featured on 'Top Of The Pops'.

It is in serious danger of being the first single by Jason to peak short of the top five.

● JANET JACKSON: "Here's a good tip on how to hide those unsightly split ends, tie decorative jewellery to them."

CHARTFILE USE EXTRA

Bonnie Raitt's Grammy-winning album 'Nick Of Time' simultaneously celebrated a year (52 weeks) in the chart and two million sales by climbing to Number One for the first time last week.

It consolidates its position this week, even though 'Have A Heart' — the first hit off the album from three attempts — dips from its peak of number 49 to number 54.

40-year-old Bonnie waited 17½ years between her album chart debut (in October 1972 with 'Give It Up') and her first Number One — the longest endured by any act.

'Nick Of Time' dethroned Paula Adbul's album 'Forever Your Girl' — and Paula knows a thing or two about the waiting game herself: when 'Forever Your Girl' finally reached Number One for the first time last October it had been in the chart for 64 weeks — an all-time US record, smashing the 58 week gestatio Fleetwood Mac's self-titled 1976 album.

• Soul II Soul get back on the hit this week as 'Get A Life' debuts at number 64, following the no-show of 'Jazzie's Groove'.

In Britain, of course, 'Jazzie's Groove was the flipside of 'Get A Life', but in North America it was considered to be strong enough to be released in its overight. It's a gamble that worked better north of the border in Canada, where reached 15.
