CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

● Madonna's 'Vogue' retires after four weeks at Number One, allowing Adamski to take over pole position with 'Killer', a song he wrote with his chum Seal, who just happens to be the uncredited and exceedingly good vocalist on 'Killer'.

How the song came to have such a title is something of a mystery, since not only does it not appear in the lyrics, but it is not even alluded to in even the most oblique fashion.

Adamski's previous single 'NRG' — an instrumental — peaked at number 12 in February. He thus becomes one of the select few to reach the Top 20 with both vocal and instrumental hits, joining such luminaries as Herb Alpert and The Shadows.

● Paul Young returns to the chart after an absence of more than three years with 'Softly Whispering I Love You', which makes a fine debut at number 34.

Originally a number four hit for The Congregation (a studio group, graced by the distinctive gravel growl of former Plastic Penny vocalist Brian Keith) 'Softly Whispering I Love You' was written by Roger Cook and Roger Greenaway, two boys from Bristol who wrote a staggering catalogue of hits in the Sixties and Seventies, amongst them 'Something's Gotten Hold Of My Heart' for Gene Pitney, 'Melting Pot' for Blue Mink, 'My Baby Loves Lovin'' for White Plains, 'I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing' for the New Seekers, 'I Was Kaiser Bill's Bat' for Whistling Jack Smith, 'Home Lovin' Man' for Andy Williams and their own pseudonymous hit 'Lovers Of The World Unite' of which they masqueraded as David & Jonathan.

Despite its high chart entry, it has to be said that Paul Young's version of 'Softly Whispering I Love You' fails to do justice to the song, and many will find the CD track — a duct of 'You've Lost That Lovin' Feelin'' with Phil Collins — eminently more listenable.

● Last week, Danish duo Laid Back — keyboards player Tim Stahl and guitarist John Guldberg — finally reached the Top 75 with their single 'Bakerman'.

The record has already been a huge hit over much of Europe, notably in Austria, where it is the year's best-seller, though it is being hotly pursued by Sinéad O'Connor's 'Nothing Compares 2 U'. This week Dr Baker, another act based in Denmark, enter the chart with their dance hit 'Kaos'.

Dr Baker are a new act, but Laid Back have been together over nine years, and scored a major international hit with 'White Horse' in 1984. A Number One hit in eight countries, it sold over a million copies, even reaching number 26 in America.

The only previous occasion on which two Danish records were charted simultaneously was back in October 1961, when 'Longtime Boy' and 'Sucu Sucu', both by aristocratic folk duo Nina and Frederick, had overlapping Top 50 careers.

● 'Better The Devil You Know' debuts at number five to become Kylie Minogue's ninth consecutive Top 10 single — 10 if we include her duet with Jason Donovan, 'Especially For You'.

Kylie's star seems to be in the ascendancy, and she must now be regarded as SAW's number one act again, ahead of Jason.

It's not so easy for her in her homeland however. 'Tears On My Pillow' is about to slip out of the Aussie Top 100 after peaking a few weeks ago at number 20, while sister Dannii's debut hit 'Love And Kisses' climbed as high as number four.

Kylie's 'Devil' is countered by Eurythmics' 'Angel', the fourth hit lifted from their latest album 'We Too Are One'.

Eurythmics are the fifth act to have a hit with a song named 'Angel', emulating Rod Stewart, Aretha Franklin (with whom, of course, they teamed for the hit 'Sisters Are Doing It For Themselves') Madonna and Aerosmith. They have also been very successful themselves singing about an angel playing with their heart.

CHARTFILE USA EXTRA

The break-up of New Edition doesn't seem to have done any harm to any of the group's principals. Former lead vocalist Johnny Gill's 'Rub You The Right Way' — his maiden attempt to equal the tremendous success of another former member of the group, Bobby Brown — is the chart's highest new entry at number 49.

Meanwhile, the remainder of the group (Ricky Bell, (Michael) Biv (ens), (Rc) DeVoe charge to number 10 with their single 'Poison'.

In Billboard's black singles chart The Bell Biv DeVoe single holds Number One, while Johnny Gill's single is poised to strike at number three.

New Edition's original mentor Maurice Starr isn't doing too bad either. He discovered and moulded The Kids On The Block, and his late creation Perfect Gentlemen, a pair of 12-year-olds including his own son Maurice Starr Junior climb to number 23 this week with their debut 'Ooh La La (I Can't Get Over You)'. Maurice Starr Senior, naturally produced and wrote the disc.

More New Kids' news: As 'Cover scales the chart here, a brand new NKOTB single 'Step By Step' is released in America next week. It will be followed this summer by 'Angel Of Love', a duet between New Kids' Jordan Knight and new artist Ana.

Maurice Starr's impressive stable of current and former charges were not discovered as the result of a worldwide even nationwide talent hunt — each every one of them hails from his hometown of Boston.
