CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

early 191/2 years elapsed between Iton John's singles chart debut and his st Number One solo hit, but having ally reached pole position he seems ry reluctant to surrender his advantage 'Sacrifice/Healing Hands' continues at umber One for the fifth straight week, become Britain's longest-reigning chart pper since Black Box's 'Ride Onme', a six week champion last ptember/October.

'Sacrifice/Healing Hands' has rapidly cended the year-to-date sales rankings d now stands at number two behind néad O'Connor's 'Nothing propares 2 U', having sold more than 0,000 ies.

'Sacrifice/Healing Hands' has seen off the allenge of Pavarotti's 'Nessun orma' and isn't seriously threatened by raig McLachlan's 'Mona', even ough the latter disc moves up to mber two this week, but it's still oddsthat there will be a new Number One xt week, and all the smart money is on urtle Power'.

The debut single by Partners In ryme, which reached number 13 in nerica last month, storms on to the art at number four this week. It thus comes the highest debuting disc ever by act new to the chart, beating the mber five debuts of the former record Iders Neil ('Hole In My Shoe' in 1984) d Bomb The Bass ('Beat Dis' in 88).

Turtle Power' is taken from the eenage Mutant Ninja Turtles' movie, a ega-grossing hit Stateside due to make ciner debut here in November. It's escond single from the soundtrack rum, and has already very convincingly passed the first. Hi Tek 3's 'Spin That heel', which peaked at number 69 in February, despite the involvement of no lesser luminary than Ya Kid K.

• More than a quarter of this week's Top 40 is made up of remakes, amongst them two songs recorded as album tracks by The Rolling Stones more than a quarter of a century ago — 'Mona', now a hit for Craig McLachlan and 'I'm Free' currently cutting it for the Soup Dragons.

'Mona' was written by Bo Diddley (under his real name of Ellas McDaniels) in 1964, and was covered by the Stones on their album 'Rolling Stones No 2.' in 1965. Later that same year, the Jagger/Richard original 'I'm Free' turned up on their album 'Out Of Our Heads'. The Stones are of course still in the Top 40 themselves with 'Almost Hear You Sigh', which is only slowly sinking from the number 31 peak that made it the biggest of the three hits pulled off their album 'Steel Wheels'. Another remake of a Stones track likely to make an impact on the chart is the Steppford Wives' dance remake of '2000 Light Years From Home', a brilliant Jagger/Richard composition that was first heard on their 1967 album 'Their Satanic Majesties Request'.

With so many remakes around, it's not surprising that individual artists' catalogues are being raided time and again by would-be hitmakers. Running neck-and-neck with the Stones in this respect is the unlikely figure of Roberta Flack. Paul Johnson recently came close to having a hit with his update of her hit 'Don't Make Me Wait Too Long', and Joanna Law is currently scoring with 'First Time Ever I Saw Your Face', while Jillian Mendez has updated 'Feel Like Making Love' and Nuf-EI-Tee have tackled 'Back

● SINÉAD O'CONNOR: "Seeing that gorgeous Steve Bull inspired me. I think he has wonderful hair"

Together Again', Roberta's smash hit duet with Donny Hathaway.

Donny's daughter, Lalah Hathaway, launched her career this week with - you've guessed it - a remake. Her first single is 'Heaven Knows', a new version of a fairly unsuccessful 1985 single by Jaki Graham. Other old songs shaping up to become hits in new versions include 'Silly Games', a number two hit from 1979 now overhauled by Beats International's vocalist Lindy Layton with vocal backing supplied by the original hitmaker Janet Kay. Two versions of IOCC's Number One hit 'I'm Not In Love', one in English by IJ & The SI Soundwave and one in Spanish by Roé:; Mike Oldfield's 'Tubular Bells'; chiming out anew in a Plutonic version; Diana Ross and The Supremes' 'Reflections' now by Jam Society: Swedish duo Da Yeene's motoring revamp of The Beatles' 'Drive My Car'; The Senators' frankly disappointing stab stab at Van Morrison's 'Brown Eyed Girl'; Ben Liebrand's rap re-write of Stevie Wonder's 'I Wish' and, just to make things complicated, 'Feel Like Making Lox by Deborah Conway. No relation to the aforementioned Roberta Flack/Jillian Mendez record, this is in fact a soulful update of Bad Company's hit of the same name. And this is only the tip of a very large iceberg.

 Paula Abdul's 'Knocked Out' belatedly becomes the fourth Top 40 hi off her debut album 'Forever Your Girl'. Paula's first-ever single as long ago as September 1988, it failed to chart then, but reached number 45 when re-issued last August. Now remixed by Shep Pettibone, it returns to chart action. number 28 this week. Paula also reached number three with 'Straight Up', number 24 with 'Forever Your Girl' and, most recently, number two with 'Opposites Attract' in May. A fifth single from her album ('It's Just') entitled '(It's Just) The Way That You Love Me' peaked at number 74, while a sixth 'Cold Hearted' failed to chart at all
