CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

ixed fortunes for Elton John, whose ngles chart topper 'Sacrifice/Healing ands' is edged out by Partners In iryme's 'Turtle Power' after five weeks

Number One, while 'Sleeping With The ast' climbs to the top of the album chart.

'Elton's last number one album was ireatest Hits', which lingered 11 weeks at the summit between November 1974 and abruary 1975. The 15½ years that eparate that number one and 'Sleeping vith The Past' is the longest endured by ny act between Number Ones, beating the record of nearly 15 years established a two months ago by the Carpenters.

If we include only newly recorded not compilations in our lbums alculations, the gap between Elton's Jumber Ones is even longer — but not nuch, 'Caribou' was his last album of new naterial to reach Number One, and acated the top spot 16 years ago this veek. Elton also topped the chart with Goodbye Yellow Brick Road' in December 1973 and 'Don't Shoot Me, I'm Only The Piano Player' in February 1973. These four albums were consecutive and .ll topped the chart in a period of rather ess than two years. Elton's overall tally of ive number ones is bettered by only 11

His next single will now be 'Whispers' nstead of the previously advised 'Club At The End Of The Street', his recent US hit.

Though several lengths clear of the number two album of the artists' album thart, 'Sleeping With The Past' actually sold 10,000 copies fewer than the Numb - One compilation 'Now Dance 902' la eek. That album includes 20 12-inch versions of hits for the price of ess than three, amongst them England New Order's Number One 'World In Motion . . . ' plus 'Venus' by Don Pablo's Animals, 'Dirty Cash (Money Talks)' by The Adventures of Stevie V, 'Wild Women Do' by Natalie Cole and some current hits, like 'Close To You' by Maxi Priest and 'U Can't Touch This' by MC Hammer.

- Notwithstanding its inclusion on 'Now Dance 902' (see above), MC Hammer's single 'U Can't Touch This' checks its fall this week and bounds up to number five, its highest placing to date. It reached number six a fortnight ago but dipped to number seven last week. When records turn around like this there's usually a good reason (Snap and Adamski, for example, both had hits that have staged mini-revivals after being used for BBC trailers/features recently) but sales of 'U Can't Touch This' are still dropping they're down by 25 per cent over the last two weeks — and the record climbs simply because its sales are falling more slowly than the F.A.B. and Roxette records it leapfrogs.
- Madonna returns to the Top 5 this week with 'Hanky Panky', the second hit off her album 'I'm Breathless', following the Number One success of 'Vogue'. Publicity generated by Maddy's sell-out concerts will undoubtedly have helped the single as well as her albums, which all post significant improvements in sales this week. 'I'm Breathless' climbs from number 11 to number five, 'Like A Prayer' from number 72 to number 57, 'True Blue' re-enters the chart at number 94 and 'Like A Virgin' inches up from number 120 to 118.

In the 48 hours prior to her first Wembley gig last Friday, Capital Radio invited its listeners to vote for their favourite Madonna track. They were inundated with thousands of calls from which they assembled the following Top

HEAVY D TRAGEDY

Trouble T, a dancer with Heavy D And The Boyz, has been killed durin an incident in New York. Trouble T, whose real name was Troy Dickson, died after falling into the street while playing around with Heavy D's roadcrew as they unloaded some equipment.

SEMINAR CHAOS

Chaos broke out at the New Music Seminar in New York last week, durin a debate on the rise of the Manchester music scene. During the discussion, which was entitled Wake Up America, You're Dead', Happy Mondays' manager Nathan McGough was attacked by various American artists claiming that his band had "stolen" black music styles. Tony Wilson, the boss of Factory Communications, tried to keep order as Marshall Jefferson and Derrick May stormed out of the meeting after trading insults with comedian Keith Allen, responsible for the lyrics on New Order's recent hit, World In Motion'.

"All English DJs are shit," commented May. Phew! More details next week.

RAVE RAID

More than 800 people were arrested when police raided a rave at Gilderstone near Leeds at the weekend. More than 200 officers surrounde a disused warehouse and claim to have found over £2,000 worth of drug But after questioning, most of the people arrested were allowed to go fre

F··· YOU!

Madonna could be in line for an unusual entry into the Guinness Book of Records following her performance at Wembley Stadium on Sunday night. Fed up with media criticism of her raunchy stage show and complaints about her use of four letter words at her concert on Friday, broadcast liv on Radio 1, she had the 75,000 crowd yell "f, yeah!". For a full revieuse next week's issue.

This is probably an accurate reflection of not only London, but also Britain's favourite Madonna recordings, more so than a sales based ranking of her singles, which can be adversely affected when (as is the case with Madonna) they come out after over a million people already have them as album tracks.

• Reformed for Prince's 'Graffiti Bridge' film, the Time — Morris Day, Jim Jam, Terry Lewis, Monte Moir Jesse Johnson, Jellybean Johnson and Jerome Benton —

finally make their UK album chart debuthis week as 'Pandemonium' debuts at number 66. The group could not be maptly-named, as time is one commodity they are very generous with, their alburunning for 65 minutes and 10 seconds all formats. Some CDs and cassettes rulonger, but I've never known the vinyl version of any charted album to have a greater playing time. One or two compilations may have been more clos crammed, but I doubt it.
