CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

The Steve Miller Band's single 'The Joker' climbs to the top of the chart this week, 17 years after it was recorded. Only three Number Ones in chart history have had longer gestations — The Hollies' 'He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother' (Number One in 1988, 19 years after it was recorded). Ben E. King's 'Stand By Me (Number One in 1987, 25 years after it was recorded) and Jackie Wilson's 'Reet Petite' (Number One in 1986, over 29 years after it was recorded).

Both Miller and King's hits owe their unexpected success to their use in TV comrails for Levi 501 jeans, while The Hollie. He Ain't Heavy ...' was re-issued after being used in advertisements for Miller Lite.

'The Joker' has, after a record interval, completed the double, topping the UK and US charts, having reached pole position on the other side of the Atlantic as long ago as 12 January 1974. Finally, it's the first single on the Capitol label to reach Number One since Diana Ross topped with 'Chain Reaction' in 1986.

• 'Black Cat' moves sleekly and swiftly to number 15 this week, to become the biggest of the six hits thus far lifted from Janet Jackson's latest album 'Rhythm Nation 1814', beating the number 17 peak of the previous biggest, 'Escapade', Janet will be extra proud of the achievements of 'Black Cat': though she penned the lyrics for most of her previous 12 hits (to music provided by Jimmy Jam 'Terry Lewis) she was wholly respond for the words and melody of 'Black Cat' — which is also the highest new entry to the American chart this week, debuting at number 37.

- Loose Ends' 'Don't Be A Fool' lurches upwards again this week, coming to rest at number 13, thereby equalling the highest position attained by any of the group's 10 previous hits, 1985's 'Hangin' On A String (Contemplating)'. Of the original Loose Ends that sprung to prominence in 1984, only Carl McIntosh remains.
- Re-issued due to 'public demand', The Stone Roses' 'Fools Gold/What The World Is Waiting For' re-enters the chart at number 32, nine months after it first peaked at number eight.
- Number One this week in the square picture chart (it is, it has to be admitted, the only current hit available in this quaint format) is the Quireboys' latest 'There She Goes Again/Misled'. Its success in this format lifts the single from number 51 to number 37 in the overall chart listings.
- Maria McKee makes her chart debut as a soloist this week, as 'Show Me Heaven' reveals itself at number 26. Maria previously charted in 1987 as a member of Lone Justice, reaching number 45 with the single 'I Found Love', Maria, cowrote her current hit, and also penned Feargal Sharkey's 1985 chart-topper 'A Good Heart'.
- Deee-Lite's 'Groove Is In The Heart' narrowly missed out on topping the Gallup chart this week, but remains at Number One on the Club Chart for the fifth week in a row, though only just. It's now under severe pressure from Caron Wheeler's 'Livin' In The Light', which is runner-up for the third straight week.

 Ten British acts are featured in this

 THE STEVE MILLER BAND: "We know if we kept wearing these ridical outfits we'd become hip eventually" week's US Top 40 - our best showing for over two years. One of the most surprising successes is that of Paul Young, whose remake of the Chi-Lites' 'Oh Girl' climbs to number 15 this week, Meanwhile, Californian MC Hammer's remake of the same group's 'Have You Seen Her' climbs to number four. The last time two remakes of songs by the same act were on the chart at the same time was back in 1987, when Tiffany and Billy Idol were competing for chart honours — and scored consecutive Number Ones — with their respective recordings of two Tommy James and The

● George Michael's long-awaited second album, 'Listen Without Prejudice Volume 1', debuts convincingly at Number One. George's first solo album 'Faith', which also debuted at Number One when it was released nearly three years ago, returns to the chart at number 40, following his appearance last week on 'The South Bank Show'.

Shondells hits — 'I Think We're Alone

Now' and 'Mony Mony'.

'Listen Without Prejudice' didn't just sell more copies than its rivals last week wiped the floor with them, outselling number two album by a margin of 8

'Praying For Time', the first single f 'Listen Without Prejudice', dips to nu 12 here, but climbs to number 18 in America, where it vaulted from numl 41 to number 23 last week, to enter Top 40 higher than any other single 1 year, Billboard magazine predicts that 'Praying For Time' has an 88 per centhance of topping its Hot 100 chart, the basis of its performance so far.

• Sonia's SAW-produced 'End Of World' climbs a notch to number 18 week, equalling the chart peak scaled Skeeter Davis' original version o song. Meanwhile, Jason Donovar remake of 'Rhythm Of The Rain' — produced by Stock Aitken Waterman — dips from its peak number nine to number 10, thus failitop the number five peak of The Cascades' original, 'End Of The Wand 'Rhythm Of The Rain' were both at the same time first time around to in the spring of 1963.
