CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

● PET SHOP BOYS: "Don't look behind you Chris, but I think we're being followed"

The Righteous Brothers' 'Inchained Melody' continues at Number One for a fourth week, but will be hard-pressed to hang on to its title next week, its likely successor at the top being Vanilla Ice's 'Ice Ice Baby', which debuts sensationally at number three. That's the highest ever debut by a new chart act, topping the number four debut of fellow rappers (and fellow SBK Records signings) Partners In Kryme's 'Turtle Power' just four months ago.

16 peak scaled by the original Marvin Gaye/Kim Weston recording of the song in 1967. Forty five year-old Rod and Tina, who will be 51 next week, are one of the oldest duos ever to chart, though they are considerably younger than Hylda Baker and Arthur Mullard, who were both of pensionable age when they had a Top 30 hit with 'You're The One That I Want' in 1978.

Had things gone her way this week, Kylie Minogue would have joined Madonna, Kate Bush and Barbra Streisand as one of the only women to have three Number One solo albums. Instead, Kylie's 'Rhythm Of Love' album debuts at number nine and to add insult to injury, Madonna's latest album the compilation 'The Immaculate Collection' debuts at Number One, allowing her to move ahead of Bush and Streisand to become the only female soloist to have four Number One albums (as half of Abba, Frida and Agnetha were of course featured on eight Number One albums).

● For the first time ever, all of this week's top three albums are double LP packages, a point which is far less relevant than it ever was before as the vinyl share of the market is so small these days (latest BPI shipment figures show that only 15 per cent of sales in the last quarter were of vinyl albums).

And even though the top three are all double LPs, the Madonna and Phil Collins albums are both condensed to single cassette/CD.

"Sailors for trail or rent, rooms to let 10 cents", at least I think that's how it goes. Whatever it is, The Proclaimers have a major hit with 'King Of The Road', which debuts this week at number 17. Their sixth hit to date, it's also their highest debuting disc and their first cover, having been written and originally recorded by Roger Miller, for whom it was a Number One hit in 1965.

● Pet Shop Boys' Neil Tennant and Chris Lowe are back in the chart this week, but in a very modest way. The duo's latest disc 'Being Boring' enters at number 36, 32 places lower than their last single 'So Hard'. It brings to a crashing halt their run of six consecutive Top 10 debuts.

Indeed, of their 14 hits to date, only the first two debuted lower than 'Being Boring'. Here's how their hits have fared on their first week in the chart, in descending order of impressiveness: Number 4 — 'So Hard' (1990), 'Always On My Mind' (1987), Number 5 — 'It's Alright' (1989), 'It's A Sin' (1987), Number 7 — 'Left To My Own Devices' (1988), 'Heart' (1988), Number 9 — 'Domino Dancing' (1988), Number 10 — 'What

Have I Done To Deserve This?' (with Dusty Springfield, 1987), Number 17 — 'Rent' (1987), Number 23 — 'Suburbia' (1986), Number 29 — 'Opportunities (Let's Make Lots Of Money)' (1986), Number 36 — 'Being Boring' (1990), Number 52 — 'Love Comes Quickly' (1986) and Number 59 'West End Girls' (1985).

Meanwhile, the Shoppies' sometime collaborator Dusty Springfield registers her latest hit this week as 'Arrested By You' debuts at number 72. It has been said that 51-year-old Dusty is the oldest female soloist to chart. In fact, Gracie Fields was 58 before the first of her brace of hits 'Around The World' and 61 when her second hit, 'Little Donkey', scored in 1959. So Dusty has nearly a decade to go before she can claim the record.

● Caron Wheeler's second solo hit 'UK Blak' unexpectedly dips to number 40 this week, apparently having peaked at number 40. Meanwhile, Soul II Soul the group she turned her back on to pursue a solo career, debut at number 10 with their latest hit 'Missing You', on which America's Kym Mazelle sings lead.

● In July, Janet Jackson's 'Come Back To Me' soared from number 93 to 44 the US Hot 100, the biggest leap by an record since Donna Summer's 'Ho Stuff' advanced 50 places in a week in 1979. Now Janet's at it again — this week 'Love Will Never Do (Without You)' charges from number 89 to number 46
