CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

Vanilla Ice climbed to Number One on Sunday with his first single 'Ice Ice Baby', only a week after making his chart debut. In the whole of chart history, the following are the only acts (aside from charity aggregations and duets by previously charted acts) to reach Number One in seven days: Edison

Lighthouse (in 1970, with 'Love Grows'), Mungo Jerry (1970, 'In The Summertime'), Dave Edmunds (1970, 'I Hear You Knocking'), Nicole (1982, 'A Little Peace'), Musical Youth (1982, 'Pass The Dutchie'), Spitting Image (1986, 'The Chicken Song'), Snapt! (1990, 'The Power') and Partners In Kryme (1990, 'Turtle Power').

Though ousted from Number One after four weeks, The Righteous Brothers' 'Unchained Melody' succeeds Sinéad O'Connor's 'Nothing Compares 2 U' as the best-selling single of the year.

● The highest new entry of the week is 'Kinky Boots', the novelty single by Avengers' TV stars Patrick MacNee (now 68 years old) and Honor Blackman (63). Originally released in 1964, it was subsequently re-issued in 1983 by the Cherry Red label, but on neither occasion did it chart.

'Kinky Boots' was discovered by Radio 1's Simon Mayo a few weeks ago, and subsequently re-released due to "public demand".

At 95 seconds, it is certainly the shortest hit of the year, and probably the shortest hit of the last decade — and may even be one of the 10 shortest of all-time (an earlier information on short discs welcomed). With a B-side running only a little over two minutes, the whole disc is exceedingly short — at least in its seven-inch version, though a 12-inch remix of 'Kinky Boots', due any day, clocks in at four minutes and 35 seconds.

The average Top 40 hit at present is over twice as long as 'Kinky Boots' at three minutes and 47 seconds. The next shortest is the Proclaimers' 'King Of The Road', which runs for two minutes and 38 seconds, and the longest is Jon Bon Jovi's 'Miracle', at precisely five minutes (thanks to Bob Macdonald for help with timings).

'Kinky Boots' isn't the only Sixties recording to make its chart debut this week: Lord Tanamo's ska single 'I'm In The Mood For Love' — as used in the Paxo Stuffing adverts on TV — debuts at number 58, 25 years after it was first released.

A Jamaican, Lord Tanamo was an active recording artist from 1961 to 1978, and recently visited the UK for a ska revival show in London.

'I'm In The Mood For Love' is flipped by another TV commercial favourite — Desmond Dekker's 'Israelites' a Number One hit in 1969 now best remembered from the TDK tape commercials as 'Me Ears Are Alight'.

● Still riding high in the Top 10 with Robert Palmer and 'I'll Be Your Baby Tonight', UB40 register the fifth hit from their latest album 'Labour Of Love II' as 'Impossible Love' debuts at number 47.

The album which entered the chart exactly a year ago, also includes 'Homey Girl' (a number six hit), 'Here I Am' (number 46), 'Kingston Town' (number 4) and 'Wear You To The Ball' (number 35). ('I'll Be Your Baby Tonight' is from Palmer's album.)

'Labour Of Love II' climbed as high as number three in the album chart rankings, and has sold well over 600,000 copies. It includes a potential sixth hit in the form of 'The Way You Do The Things You Do', the Smokey Robinson penned song which is currently a Top 10 hit for the group in America.

Climbing five notches to number eight this week, it's only their second Top 10 hit in the States, and could follow the first 'Red Red Wine' all the way to Number One. Even if it doesn't, it's already the most successful of the four hit versions of 'The Way You Do The Things You Do', having this week topped the number 11 peak of The Temptations' 1964 recording of the song.

● Donovan returns to the chart for the first time in over 20 years with 'Jennifer Juniper', a newly recorded version of his 1968 Top Five hit on which he is now joined by the Singing Corner. Coincidentally, the Butthole Surfers' remake of his other 1968 Top Five hit 'Hurdy Gurdy Man' is number 98 this week, while another version of the same song is scheduled for release shortly by

Brix Smith of Adult Net/Fal fame, with her boyfriend Nigel Kennedy on violin.

● Madonna continues at Number One on the artist album chart, but the best selling album is 'Now That's What Call Music 18'. Seventeen of the 18 'Now' albums have topped the over compilation chart. 'Now 4' peaked at number two.

● Mariah Carey dubbed "the v Whitney" is replaced at the top of the Hot 100 singles chart this week by genuine article, Whitney Houston notching her eighth Number One v 'Your Baby Tonight'.

She therefore equals the record most Number One singles by a female solo star, established by Madonna v 'Vogue' topped the chart earlier this And Madonna clearly aims to make record her own again — her latest 'Justify Your Love' climbs from number 23 this week.
