CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

● CLIFF RICHARD

Anilla Ice is runaway chart champion in this week, but Cliff Richard asks likely to justify the bookies' belief that he will have the Christmas Number one with 'Saviour's Day' (see separate entry, below) which is the highest of the week's 19 top 75 newcomers at number

1. Cliff has had only two singles debut higher — 1986's 'Living Doll', which charted at number four, and last year's 'Just Of Me', which entered at number 10. Running Cliff a close second for the highest new entry is Madonna, for whom 'Justify My Love' is the 13th single to gain immediate Top 10 status. The first is 'Intercourse' (debuted at number 10, 1985), 'Angel' (number 10, 1985), 'We're Here To Tell' (number 10, 1985), 'True Love' (number three, 1986), 'Open Your Heart' (number eight, 1986), 'La Isla Bonita' (number five, 1987), 'Who's That Girl' (number three, 1987), 'Causing A Commotion' (number seven, 1987), 'Like A Prayer' (number two, 1989), 'Express Yourself' (number 10, 1989), 'Dear Jessie' (number nine, 1989) and 'Vogue' (number one, 1990).

Maddy's single would doubtless have made an even more spectacular opening, but it was available only on seven-inch and cassette last week. Meanwhile, her remix/cover album 'The Immaculate Collection' remains at the top of the album chart for the third week, having already sold over 30,000 copies.

Mud, the Manhattans and Cher have all had hits entitled 'razy', but this week there's two new acts of that title. Debuting at number 45 is Real's first solo hit of that title (he was, you may recall, vocalist on Adamski's chart topper 'Killer'), while debuting at number 66 is Patsy Cline, with her version of the Willie Nelson song of the same title.

Patsy recorded 'Crazy' 29 years ago, and died less than two years later. 'Crazy' is now the oldest recording in the chart, beating three other Sixties leftovers — 'Unchained Melody', 'Kinky Boots' and 'I'm In The Mood For Love'. Another couple of Sixties recordings are likely to chart next week — The Righteous Brothers' 'You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling' and Pinky & Perky's 'Give Us A Kiss For Christmas', which just failed to reach the Top 75 this week.

● New Kids On The Block just fail to make the Top 10 with their new hit 'This One's For The Children', but it is likely to climb into the upper echelon next week. Unless either Madonna's 'Justify My Love' or The Righteous Brothers' 'You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling' spectacularly outsell 'This One's For The Children' this month, the Kids will be the best-selling singles act of 1990.

● It's interesting to note that 'To Love Somebody', now descending from its number eight peak for Jimmy Somerville, was written by the Bee Gees for Otis Redding, though he never got to record it before shuffling off this mortal coil. Somerville's next single, incidentally, will be a brand new remix of the song that first brought him to fame 'Smalltown Boy'.

● The Pet Shop Boys' 'Being Boring' surprisingly dips to number 26 this week, this despite being performed on 'Top Of The Pops' on Thursday and being released last week in a highly acclaimed new 12-inch version. Its peak (number 20) is the lowest for any single by the duo since they first scored back in 1985, faring slightly less well than 'Love Comes Quickly', a number 19 hit in 1986.

The reverse suffered by Bombalurina's 'Seven Little Girls' — follow-up to their Number One hit 'Itsy Bitsy Teeny Weeny Yellow Polka Dot Bikini' — is equally surprising, but very heartening. Several other records went into a premature decline this week, among them The Proclaimers' 'King Of The Road', the Dream Warriors' 'My Definition Of A Boombastic Jazz Style', Monie Love's 'Down To Earth', Deee-Lite's 'Power Of Love' and UB40's 'Impossible Love'.

● Charity singles are back in vogue, with three debuting in the Top 75 this week — the latest hits by New Kids On The Block (in aid of Cerebral Palsy charities), Paul McCartney (various charities for the homeless) and the Metal Gurus (Childline). And just outside the chart are other discs by Elton John (various AIDS charities), Kirsty MacColl and the Pogues (ditto) and Bruno & Liz (Children In Need).

The Bruno & Liz single ('Let's Dance') debuted at number 54 last week, but charity record or not, it was just too awfully to sell enough copies to retain a chart place this week. The not-so-musical duo also recorded a single for Children In Need last year, a version of the current Rod & Tina hit 'It Takes Two', which peaked a place higher than 'Let's Dance' number 53.

● Cliff Richard is clear favourite with bookmakers William Hill to top the charts this Christmas, but Orchestra In A Half Shell's single from the Teenage Mutant Hero Turtles' film is also heavily backed. The latest odds: 11-4 Cliff Richard, 7-2 Orchestra In A Half Shell, 1-2 Righteous Brothers, 8-1 Madonna, 12-1 Farm, Patrick MacNee & Honi Blackman, 14-1 Seal, New Kids On The Block, Patsy Cline, 16-1 Chris Isaak, 20-1 Band Aid II, 25-1 Van Halce, Paul McCartney, Carpenters, Metal Gurus, Jonathan King, Jive Bunny, Status Quo, 33-1 MC Hammer, Pinky & Perky, Lord Tanamo, Errol Brown, 50-1 Bar.
