CHARTFILE

BY ALAN JONES

● JESUS JONES

current chart record to play for over six minutes. Johnny Panic And The Bible Of Dreams' 'Johnny Panic And the Bible Of Dreams' single, with a rap by the bizarrely named Biti Straunch, clocks in at six minutes and 18 seconds, even in its seven-inch version.

● Jesus Jones are the fourth album chart toppers in as many weeks, debuting at number one with their second album 'Doubt'. Their previous album, 1989's 'Liquidizer', peaked at number 32.

● "Charts mean nothing to me ... I'm just happy that people buy my records." So said Kenny Rogers when he was a regular hitmaker in the Seventies, but even he would probably be pleased that two chart records he has held for a long time have recently survived challenges — one here and one in America.

In Britain, Patsy Cline's 30-year-old recording of 'Crazy' climbed as high as number 14 recently, narrowly missing the opportunity of becoming the first country recording to reach the top 10 since 'Islands In The Stream', a duet with Dolly Parton, which was number seven hit a little over seven years ago.

Meanwhile in America, the continuing success of Vanilla Ice's 'Ice Ice Baby' album appears to have foiled Madonna's attempts to top the chart with 'The Immaculate Collection'.

The forthcoming release of 'Rescue Me' could yet lift 'The Immaculate Collection' to number one, but as things stand, Rogers' 1980 album 'Greatest Hits' remains the last individual artist compilation to reach number one. In the same period, numerous similar albums have reached number one in the UK.

The KLF are at the top of the singles chart for a second week, with 'Jam Eternal', but the Simpsons' 'Do The Bartman' is well within striking distance, while Nomad's '(I Wanna Give You) Devotion' and Praise's 'Only You' could pose a challenge in a fortnight.

The Praise single makes a massive move this week, advancing from number 19 to number five. It features vocalist Miriam Stockley, who thus leapfrogs over Kylie Minogue's latest hit 'What Do I Have To Do'. Miriam, 35, has been a backing singer on all of Kylie's hits to date, plus many others from the PWL stable, including Rick Astley's number one 'Never Gonna Give You Up'.

Rick's latest single 'Cry For Help' surged to number seven last week, to extend his unbroken run of top 10 hits to eight, but dips to number nine this week despite a small increase in sales.

● There's no sign of Van Morrison's latest single 'Enlightenment' in the top 75, but debuting at number 68 this week is 'Baby Please Don't Go', his introductory 1965 hit recorded when he was lead vocalist of Ulster group Them. Featured in the David Lynch film 'Wild At Heart', whence came Chris Isaak's hit 'Wicked Game', it is also being used on the TV commercial for the Peugeot 205.

▲ The calm after the storm? A record-equalling 24 singles made their top 75 debuts last week. This week there's a much lower intake than normal, with just 13 first-timers. Taking advantage of the lull, Gloria

Estefan's 'Coming Out Of The Dark', which seemed to peak at number 28, now bounces back to number 25, and Jellyfish's 'The King Is Half Undressed', having slipped from its debut position of number 73 to number 74 last week, now surges to number 43.

With a drum pattern suspiciously reminiscent of The Beatles' 'Tomorrow Never Knows', 'The King Is Half Undressed' is registering many of its sales on the second of two CD releases, a gimmicky edition in which the CD pouch is a 'jellypack', containing a clear liquid in which coloured stars are suspended.

● Debuting at number one only a fortnight ago, Queen's 'Innuendo' single plunges from number two to number 12 this week, as its sales plummet by more than half.

With their album, also entitled 'Innuendo' now out, potential future sales of the single are low, and it may well equal the lowest-ever five week chart residency for a number one established by Iron Maiden's 'Bring Your Daughter ... To The Slaughter' (see page 39), though it has already sold more copies than the Maiden disc.

● A hitmaker in the Seventies for MGM Records, and in the Eighties for Virgin, Donny Osmond registers his first chart success of the Nineties with Capitol. 'My Love Is A Fire' enters quietly enough at number 67. It performed modestly in America too reaching number 60, but has been number one in Malaysia for the past fortnight.

● Queen's 'Innuendo' isn't the only

L A T E N E W S BCM SAVED!

As Record Mirror went to press we were told that BCM Records has been saved from financial collapse. Last week the company announced it was in financial difficulty, reported in This Week, page 27, but now we're told its future is assured. "The problem has now been resolved and BCM will continue trading, as we have had a last minute rescue bid," says a spokesperson. Full details of the bid should be known soon.
