CHART FOCUS

Number one for the sixth week in a row, Shakespears Sister's Stay has topped the chart for longer than any previous hit by an all-girl duo or group — it is coming under increased pressure and is almost certain to be deposed next week, with a considerable number of challengers already in the frame.

The smart money is on Ce Peniston, whose reissued hit Finally moves from number six to number two. Its sales soared last week, and it is now less than 10% behind Stay.

Former US chart-topper To Be With You by Mr Big is another obvious possibility, as it vaults from number eight to number three.

Meanwhile, Annie Lennox makes a highly convincing first solo foray into the chart, debuting at number nine with Why. Lennox has registered over 30 hits as a Tourist, with Eurythmics and with Al Green, but this is the first time she has ever had a single debut inside the Top 10. The same is true of two other veterans — the Cure, who debut at number eight with High and Def Leppard, whose first single in three years, Let's Get Rocked, enters at number six, equalling their highest-ranking hit to date. Together Leppard, Lennox and the Cure are the three highest-placed new arrivals on the chart this week. The first two made their chart debuts in 1979; the Cure followed a year later in 1980.

Amongst newer acts, the week's outstanding performances are those of Tori Amos, who has had two previous singles peak outside the Top 40 since last November, and Right Said Fred. Tori's latest offering, Winter, is the week's highest climber, making a 39 place jump to number 25. Right Said Fred meanwhile, register their third straight Top 5 hit as Deeply Dippy surges from number 16 to number four. Their first album Up enters the chart at number three, a week after it was the highest new entry on the US chart. They can clearly no longer be dismissed as a short-term novelty act.

Finally, two acts with major successes in other parts of the world make their Top 40 debuts this week. The American former model and beauty queen Vanessa Williams is number 36 with her current US chart-topper Save The Best For Last, and Dutch band Ten Sharp hold down 40th place with You, a single which has recently topped the chart in several countries on the continent.

CHART NEWCOMERS

9 ANNIE LENNOX: Why. RCA. After hits with Dave Stewart, first in the Tourists and then as Eurythmics, Annie Lennox releases her first ever solo single. Quizzed as to whether or not this indicates the end of Eurythmics (they last recorded together three years ago), Lennox will only say "maybe". Annie wrote this and the nine other songs which will form her debut solo album Divas. She admits to finding the writing process "incredibly hard". The album will be released worldwide on April 6.

The Law. Prince is currently rehearsing for his forthcoming European tour which reaches the UK on June 15.

London's Wembley Arena in June.

8 THE CURE: High Fiction. Taken from the Cure's upcoming studio album, Wish, their first new material since 1989's successful Disintegration, High is selling predominantly on CD, of which there are two different versions, one of which is contained in a "special collectors' box". The Cure will shortly announce an 11 date UK tour, as a prelude to their world tour, which kicks off in May in America.

31 PRINCE: Money Don't Matter 2 Night. Paisley Park. Prince has enlisted the skills of eminent black film-maker Spike Lee to direct the promo which accompanies Money Don't Matter, the fourth single from his Diamonds And Pearls LP. The latter has now sold 1/2m units in the UK and nearly 2m in the US. The single is backed by a non-album track entitled Call

26 ROXETTE: Church Of Your Heart. EMI. The Swedish duo returns to the chart with a song that Per (that's the chap) says is "probably our best song". The single is also climbing the chart in America, but Britain has an exclusive (so far) B-side in the form of Roxette Megamix, which welds together five of their earlier hits. Roxette are due to play

60 YAZZ: One True Woman. Polydor. Since Yazz made her debut in 1988, she has sold over 3m units. One True Woman is her first single for her new label, and comes after a hiatus of 18 months which she spent concentrating on motherhood. The single is taken from Yazz's upcoming and as yet untitled album.
