CHART FOCUS

Nottingham duo K.W.S.'s recording of Please Don't Go soars to the top of the singles chart this week, to give Birmingham-based Network its first ever number one. It's the first number one achieved by a Brummie label since 1985, when UB40 and Chrissie Hynde topped the chart with I Got You Babe, released on UB40's own DEP International imprint, and the first by an act from Nottingham since 1974, when Paper Lace topped with Billy Don't Be A Hero.

K.W.S.'s version of Please Don't Go, it should be noted, is based almost entirely on the arrangement of the song by Double You?, which, though a major hit on the continent and in the UK clubs, was released here a week after the K.W.S. version. Despite being overshadowed, the Double You? recording inches up to number 41 this week.

Please Don't Go is one of four Seventies' hits currently in the Top 30 in a new version, the other being Curiosity's rehash of Johnny Bristol's 1974 hit Hang On In There Baby, Texas's retreat of Al Green's 1971 smash Tired Of Being Alone and Allison Jordan's update of The Boy From New York City, a hit for Darts in 1978.

Since changing its format, Top Of The Pops has had mixed success with its "exclusives". But if a record has the potential, TOTP can still make a major difference. Such is the case with En Vogue's My Lovin'. A popular club hit, it nevertheless stalled at number 69 on the chart here a few weeks ago, before dropping right out of the Top 200. A Top 10 hit in America, it was aired via a live satellite performance on TOTP on Thursday and responds in dramatic fashion, by re-charting at number 30.

The fourth single from Simply Red's septuple platinum album Stars, Thrill Me is struggling a little, only climbing eight notches from its debut position this week, to come to rest at number 33 — but the exposure commanded by the single, plus a renewed TV campaign is enough to push Stars back to the top of the album chart. The album has now topped the chart on five entirely separate occasions in its 31-week chart tenure, during which time it has never dipped out of the Top 10. Its resurgence, and the continuing strength of Annie Lennox's Diva prevent Chris De Burgh's Power Of Ten from emulating the number one success of his last album of new material, 1988's Flying Colours. Alan Jones

CHART NEWCOMERS

28 ALLISON JORDAN: The Boy From New York City (Arista). The girl from Sydenham isn't the first to sing the praises of the boy from New York City — the song was a US Top 10 hit for the Ad-Libs in the Sixties and Manhattan Transfer in the Eighties. In the interim, it achieved similar UK success for Darts in 1978. Allison (that IS the correct way to spell her name, not "Alison" as on the record) defeated nine other finalists, from a total of 2,000 entries, to win Esther Rantzen's Search For A Star competition on BBC TV. Unlike many of the entrants, 19-year-old Allison was a complete amateur, though she is now engaged in a hectic schedule of TV dates.

similarities to Alison Limerick's recent hit Make It On My Own, Love Makes The World Go Round is a soulful showcase for Don-E, who names his main influences as Aretha Franklin and Marvin Gaye, though his style is closer to Stevie Wonder.

38 LIONEL RICHIE: Do It To Me (Motown). 1991 was an awful year for Motown in Britain with the label registering no Top 40 hits at all, but 1992 is shaping up to be much better. First, Shanice scored a major hit with I Love Your Smile, and now Lionel Richie returns for the first time in half a decade with a track lifted from his upcoming 'best of' album. "Semi-retired" for the past five years, Richie is now ready to fully resume his career as a soloist, in which context he has an enviable record of 14 hits from 14 releases.

55 THE APHEX TWIN, Digeridoo (R&S). The Aphex Twin is 20-year-old Richard James, from Truro in Cornwall, currently an electronics student at Kingstons College. As befits a budding boffin, James has invented his own synthetic percussion, just one feature of the Aussie-orientated Digeridoo, which consists largely of electronic noises, but incorporates such non-standard "instruments" as oil cans. Unlike most of its ilk ("heavy industrial hardcore", it says here), Digeridoo includes no samples of any kind. Alan Jones

32 DON-E: Love Makes The World Go Round (4th + B'way). Twenty-one-year-old south Londoner Don-E wrote and produced this, his debut single. Bearing some melodic
