CHART FOCUS

With Erasure's Abbaesque EP taking chart honours yet again, and the remainder of the Top 10 stagnant, Mariah Carey provides the week's best performance debuting at number 11 with I'll Be There, ahead of Megadeth and Def Leppard.

The record illustrates a major difference between Britain, where nearly 30 records have debuted higher this year, and America, where it debuted at number 13 five weeks ago, becoming the highest new entry since the Beatles' Let It Be in 1970.

And it's to the Beatles we turn our attention next, noting that their classic album Sgt Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band soars from number 67 to six thanks to the TV and radio exposure it received on its 25th birthday. Originally a chart-topper in 1967, it more recently climbed as high as number three when first issued on compact disc.

Meanwhile, apart from making a tidy sum from box office takings for his string of UK dates, Prince is also selling more records. His limited edition single Thunder debuts at number 28, while his album Diamonds And Pearls vaults from number 51 to number 22.

At the top of the album chart, Lionel Richie continues to shine, as Back To Front registers its fourth week at number one. Its popularity, at least temporarily, must be regarded as a mixed blessing for PolyGram, who distribute the Motown album, since it has robbed a trio of different PolyGram acts — Del Amitri, Faith No More and now Elton John — of top billing. Elton must be particularly disappointed since he was aiming for his third consecutive number one. Ironically, Back To Front may be Richie's last Motown album prior to joining the PolyGram fold proper, as he is currently close to inking a new deal with Mercury.

Back on the singles chart, What Have You Done by One Tribe featuring Gem dips six notches from its debut position of number 52. It is the second strongest regional breakout of the year, with 90 per cent of its sales coming from the London area, where it is a popular end-of-night club record. Only Frankie Miller's Caledonia (99 per cent of sales in Scotland) has charted with a greater regional bias this year. The One Tribe record debuted at number one on CIN's Kiss-FM chart last week, but now slips to number two behind Urban Shakedown's Some Justice.

CHART NEWCOMERS

11 MARIAH CAREY: I'll Be There. Columbia. MTV's popular Unplugged series — wherein popular artists play with relatively little in the way of accompaniment — has already spawned a hit album, Paul McCartney's Unplugged — The Official Bootleg, which reached number seven last year. The title of McCartney's album is indicative of the bootlegging which follows many of these shows. However, Mariah Carey's Unplugged session has been accorded an official release as a seven-track EP, from which comes this cover of the 1971 Jackson 5 hit.

number 16. Expect a similarly brief career for this, the latest single from Prince. Issued to tie-in with his UK tour, it is released only as a limited 12-inch picture disc. It is the fourth hit from his current album Diamonds & Pearls, which has stayed in the chart for nine months, selling upwards of 500,000 copies — a better track record than any of his albums since Purple Rain. The controversial first single from Prince's upcoming album, as yet untitled and unscheduled, will be Sexy M, released next month.

28 PRINCE & THE NPG: Thunder. Paisley Park. Shut Up & Dance's Raving I'm Raving recently disappeared from the chart after two weeks posting positions of two and fifteen, and the Wedding Present's California made its only chart appearance at 48 KIM WILDE: Heart Over Mind. MCA. Wilde registered her biggest hit since 1988 last time out with Rick Nowels and Ellen Shipley's Love Is Holy, which reached number 16. Her new single is from the same Love Is album. This is Wilde's 16th consecutive strike since joining MCA from RAK nearly nine years ago. No other act has registered so many hits for MCA since it established a separate label identity in the UK in the Sixties.

52 OPUS III: Talk To The Wind. PWL International. After the success of their remake of It's A Fine Day, Opus III have come up with an even more off-the-wall hit, breathing new life into what was originally a rather dour track on King Crimson's 1969 debut album In The Court Of The Crimson King. It will also appear on Opus III's debut album, Mind Fruit, scheduled for release on July 20.
