CHART FOCUS

Erasure remain solidly ensconced at the top of the singles chart for the fifth week in a row with their Abba-esque EP. It seems likely that it will be overtaken next week, probably by Mariah Carey's I'll Be There, but it should be noted that few records that have debuted at number one in nearly 40 years of chart history have hung on longer than Erasure before surrendering. The four who have include the three biggest acts in UK chart history — Elvis Presley, Cliff Richard and the Beatles.

Elvis's It's Now Or Never started its chart career with a run of eight weeks at number one in 1960; Cliff's The Young Ones and the Beatles' Get Back both survived six weeks in 1962 and 1969 respectively. The most recent example was Frankie Goes to Hollywood's Two Tribes, which clung to the summit for nine weeks in 1984, before being blasted out of the way by Band Aid's Do They Know It's Christmas.

The magnitude of their achievement shows what a canny choice Erasure made in covering four very familiar and well-loved Abba songs. Placing them all on one EP and making videos for three of them has helped to prevent any one of them from becoming too familiar and burning out, while the timely release of a DJ only selection of remixes has also helped.

Another selection of club mixes originally not intended for public consumption, those of U2's Even Better Than The Real Thing, justify the subsequent decision to release them by debuting at number 13 this week — the same position as that at which the original mix debuted. The release of the remix accelerates the decline of the original, which dips from number 18 to number 42. They thus become the first act to have two versions of the same song in the Top 50 since 1976, when rival releases of the Shangri-Las' Leader Of The Pack were charting.

On the album chart, Lionel Richie takes a sixth week at number one, while the B-52's register the first Top 10 album of their lengthy career and a flood of PolyGram catalogue albums return to prominence thanks to a Woolworths promotion which effectively slashes up to £6 off CDs and £4 off cassettes. Among the big winners are Tears For Fears' Tears Roll Down which re-enters the chart at number 24, The Very Best Of Frankie Valli & The Four Seasons (34) and Barry White's The Collection (40).

CHART NEWCOMERS

3 SMARTE'S: Sesame's Treet, Suburban Base. This fun-packed floorfiller is a hardcore homage to the children's TV show by an Essex trio whose only previous single, the controversial Fuck The Law, was released last year on the associated Boogie Times label. Smarte's consist of Chris Powell, Tom Orton and Nick Arnold. It's easily the biggest hit yet on the Romford-based Suburban Base label, eclipsing the number 36 peak of Son'z Of A Loop Da Loop Era's Far Out. Suburban Base can be contacted on 0708 727029.

first Top 75 hit. Rapturously received at Raindance, Streetwave and Amnesia, Urban Hype's aural assault can be heard via numerous PAs throughout the summer.

11 URBAN HYPE: A Trip To Trumpton. Faze 2. Pulse 8's streetwise sister label lands its first major hit with this breakneck hardcore roll call of characters from the popular kids' TV show, Trumpton. Urban Hype — Bobby D and Mark Lewis — have already enjoyed a number 14 hit on Music Week's Dance Singles chart with Technologie, but this is their

33 IRON MAIDEN: From Here To Eternity. EMI. Iron Maiden's last single Be Quick Or Be Dead would have debuted at number one, but for the tenacity of Right Said Fred's Deeply Dippy. Their new single debuts at a much lower position, not least because it's a "staggered" release, with only the seven and 12-inch formats out last week. Both tracks are taken from the group's number one album Fear Of The Dark. Currently out on a gruelling world tour, they will be headlining Castle Donington's Monsters Of Rock on August 22.

44 JOE PUBLIC: Live And Learn. Columbia. A recent number four hit in America lifted from Joe Public's self-titled debut album, Live And Learn earns its stripes by combining a friendly rap with a hooky chorus and grating them on to an R&B flavoured jack swing backing track. Hailing from Buffalo in New York, the members of Joe Public are J.R., Kev, Jake and Dew. In their early 20s, Joe Public incorporate the usual mixture of samples, loops and other borrowed bits into their music, but, unlike most of their contemporaries, they also play real instruments — drums, bass and guitar. Their album is scheduled for release in a fortnight.
