CHART FOCUS

Was Not Was reissue their 'best of' compilation Hello Dad... I'm In Jail this week, as they register only the second Top 10 hit of their career with Shake Your Head. For Ozzy Osbourne, who guests on lead vocals with Kim Basinger, Shake Your Head is also only his second Top 10; his first was as lead singer of Black Sabbath's introductory smash Paranoid nearly 22 years ago.

Meanwhile, as Jimmy Nail, surges further ahead at the top of the chart with Ain't No Doubt, 30-year-old country newcomer Billy Ray Cyrus makes his debut. He is already a major sensation in America with his debut album Some Gave All, currently in its seventh week at number one. Its first single Achy Breaky Heart has sold upwards of a million copies. After a slow start (it was ranked 100th a fortnight ago, 86th last week) the single explodes here too, soaring to number 36 this week, a move which can be almost entirely credited to Cyrus' appearance on Top Of The Pops even though figures released last week put the show's audience at a worst-yet 4.4m. It's interesting to note that country's other big hope, Garth Brooks, peaked at number 71 with his only UK chart single Shameless, in January.

Another of last week's TOTP participants, Jason Donovan, was unable to capitalise on his appearance on the show, and his 15th hit, Mission Of Love, looks like being his least successful, as it slips a notch from its debut position of number 26. Donovan's worst placing hitherto came from 1990's I'm Doing Fine, which peaked at number 22.

With 2.3m copies of Simply Red's album Stars already sold, the fifth single off the set — Your Mirror — makes a better than expected debut at number 17. The album, which nearly fell out of the Top 10 for the first time last week, surges back to number two on its 42nd week in the chart, while the new chart-topper, aided by TV advertising, is The Greatest Hits 1966-1992 by Neil Diamond. Diamond has had 27 hit albums, a total beaten by only nine other acts, but this is his first number one. It's a real coming of age for Diamond, who made his album chart debut 21 years ago. But it's not a record — Cher finally landed a number one album with her current release Love Hurts a year ago, 26 years after her debut.

CHART NEWCOMERS

5 MADONNA: This Used To Be My Playground (Sire). Madonna's first single of 1992 is her 27th hit, of which all but one (Lucky Star) has reached the Top 10. This single puts her ahead of the Beatles for Top 10 hits, with only Cliff Richard and Elvis Presley ahead of her. It's her 15th single to make its debut inside the Top 10 — a record — yet she has still never debuted at number one. This Used To Be My Playground is not expected to appear on either her next studio album or on the soundtrack album of A League Of Their Own, in which she and it both feature. Instead, it will be on Barcelona Gold, the Olympics-linked album scheduled for release by Warners on July 27.

album track into another winner — the fourth — from Jackson's Dangerous album. With Jam already out in America and lined-up as the fifth single here, it's obvious that Dangerous still has a lot of mileage left in it, and while the critics grumble that it is a flop, it has now reached 15m sales worldwide in less than eight months, only 5m fewer than Bad has managed since 1987.

12 MICHAEL JACKSON: Who Is It (Epic). Diametrically opposed dancefloor overhauls by Britain's Brothers In Rhythm and New Yorker Moby transform a very ordinary worrying dip in chart form last year — Kiss Them For Me peaked at number 32, and Shadowtime at number 57 — Siouxsie & The Banshees reap the benefits of having a track featured in Batman Returns. Its debut isn't as high as that of Prince's Batdance, but it's enough to give the group its highest-ranking hit since 1988's Peek-A-Boo, and could rise still further. The track will be on Siouxsie & The Banshees' second volume of hits — Twice Upon A Time — due in October.

35 MONIE LOVE: Full Term Love (Cooltempo). Successful British rappers are rare, successful British women rappers rarer still, but Monie Love, who first hit in 1989, continues to deliver the goods. Her latest, loosely built over the Fatback Band's I Found Lovin' has obvious crossover appeal. It's the first cut from Monie's upcoming second album.
