CHART FOCUS

Snap's six-week stay at the top of the singles chart comes to an end, with the Shamen's Ebenezer Goode taking over in pole position, while Undercover's Baker Street eases into second place, eclipsing the number three peak of Gerry Rafferty's 1978 original.

The Manic Street Preachers and the Fatima Mansions shared single, featuring their respective versions of Theme From M*A*S*H (Suicide Is Painless) and Everything I Do (I Do It For You), is the week's highest debutant at number nine. It's the first Top 10 hit for either group, and the second charity single benefitting the Spastics Society to be lifted from the upcoming NME/Radio 1 double album Ruby Trax. The first hit from the album, Dannii Minogue's update of Show You The Way To Go peaked disappointingly at number 30 a few weeks ago.

Virgin continues to suffer at the hands of Mike Oldfield. It was bad enough that his parting gift to the label was an album that peaked at number 81, and that his first album for new label WEA topped the chart. But it's worse still that said album — Tubular Bells II — maintains its lead at the top of the chart this week, thus depriving another Virgin act, Belinda Carlisle, of her first number one with The Best Of Belinda Volume 1.

Winning the Mercury Music Prize was quite a coup for Primal Scream's Screemadelica, and excited a good deal of media coverage, but a fairly modest increase in sales in its wake, with the album advancing from number 114 to number 77 this week. It's likely to be an award which will become progressively more prestigious, with a correspondingly bigger effect on sales for future winners. It's interesting to note that the sampler issued as a taster for the 10 records that competed for the prize nearly trebled its sales last week, leapfrogging over Screemadelica. It moves to the top of the budget listings displacing Elaine Paige's The Collection.

Heavy discounting is responsible for a mini invasion of the chart by several PolyGram titles. Tears For Fears' Tears Roll Down leads the charge, at number 38. Other beneficiaries include The Best Of Eric Clapton, The Jam's Greatest Hits, Faith No More's The Real Thing, Def Leppard's Hysteria, The Very Best Of The Bee Gees and Shake Your Money Maker by the Black Crowes, all of which return to the Top 75.

CHART NEWCOMERS

50 CATHERINE ZETA JONES: Former Darling Buds Of May actress Catherine Zeta Jones (pictured) has reason to hope Jeff Wayne's musical Spartacus, from which this is the first single, will be a hit. UK-based American Wayne created and produced the hugely successful War Of The Worlds album. Wayne's 'Worlds' was released in 1978, and subsequently sold over 4m copies. Spartacus, released next week, features Jones in a key role as Spartacus' lover Palone. Other principle performers on the album include Anthony Hopkins, Fish, Jimmy Helms and Chris Thompson.

them. Stewart (40 last week) and Hall (33) have fought shy of announcing that their alliance is permanent, but a self-titled album from Vegas due next month indicates this might be the case.

52 VEGAS: Possessed. RCA. A duo that is new in name only, since its members are the extremely well-known Dave Stewart (Spiritual Cowboys, Tourists, Eurhythms) and Terry Hall (Specials, Fun Boy Three, Colour Field), and have amassed 50 hits between

60 SIMON CLIMIE: Soul Inspiration. Epic. Formerly 50% of Climie Fisher, singer/songwriter Simon Climie makes his solo debut for Epic, five years after providing the label with the George Michael/Aretha Franklin number one hit I Knew You Were Waiting For Me, which he wrote with Dennis Morgan. Soul Inspiration will be followed by an album of the same name. Climie says, "A lot of English and American music has become very formulaised, so I moved around the world a bit to listen to different things," he says. Despite this, his co-writers are mainly American as well as former partner Rob Fisher.

THE ALOOF FEATURING RICARDO NICOLIA: On A Mission. Cowboy. After a seven-week apprenticeship in the Top 10 of the Record Mirror Club Chart, the Aloof's third single becomes their first hit. The group debuted on ffr with the club hit Never Get Out The Boat, and followed up with The World As One, the first Cowboy single. On A Mission is the first hit for Cowboy, whose other club successes include the current Faith Department and Well Hung Parliament Records. Cowboy can be reached on 081 813 7323.
