CHART FOCUS

A massive intake of new entries gives a fillip to sales this week, with singles growing by 8% and albums by 15% over last week.

The singles chart has been averaging a record 20 new entries a week this year, but its turnover tops a third this week, with 27 Top 75 arrivals. On the album chart, the average new intake per week in 1992 has been fewer than six, but this week there are five in the Top 10 alone, and 14 in the Top 75.

The competition at the top of both charts was particularly fierce. In the singles chart, The Shamen came through to take a fourth week at the summit. On the album chart, something had to give, as Peter Gabriel and REM both unleashed new albums. The last time they released a new studio album — in Gabriel's case So, way back in 1986; in REM's case Out Of Time about 18 months ago — they both debuted at number one. Clearly only one of them could do it this time, and the winner was REM.

Three of the most prolific hitmakers in singles chart history return to the listings this week. Prince registers his fourth hit of the year, and his 33rd in total, with My Name Is Prince, which debuts at number nine, and Shakin' Stevens, now styled simply Shaky, returns with his 37th hit Radio. It's Shaky's first hit this year, and maintains his enviable record of charting every year since 1980. Meanwhile, Status Quo achieve their 45th hit single — more than any other group — with Roadhouse Medley. It's an historic single for Quo, for as well as celebrating their own and Radio One's 25th anniversaries, it's their first single for Polydor after 20 years with Vertigo, on PolyGram's other wing.

Take That register their third hit with A Million Love Songs. It's their first hit ballad, and also the first for the record's co-producer Ian Levine, who has helmed no fewer than 16 uptempo hits since first emerging in the Seventies. This is Levine's best year yet. A Million Love Songs is the fifth hit he has produced so far in 1992, and he is also behind upcoming releases from Junior (All Over the World) and Nomad (24 Hours), both of which are already enjoying Club Chart action.

Finally, I'm Gonna Get You by Bizarre Inc featuring Angie Brown climbs from its debut position of number 17 to number six. It's the second hit to borrow from Jocelyn Brown's 1986 flop Love's Gonna Get You. The first was Snap's smash The Power, which sampled its title from the track. Alan Jones

CHART NEWCOMERS

13 SIMPLE MINDS: Love Song/Alive And Kicking (Virgin). To make hits over a period of more than a decade without releasing a compilation thereof is unusual, and the forthcoming Glittering Prize — Simple Minds '81/'92 is long overdue. Before it arrives, Virgin has cannily decided to issue this single, which pairs the minor (number 47) 1981 hit Love Song with Alive And Kicking, a 1985 number seven hit, which is currently getting a lot of TV exposure via its use on BSkyB's commercial for its Premier League football coverage.

in a long line of singles to benefit from television exposure on Levi's jeans advertisements.

36 ERMA FRANKLIN: (Take Another) Piece Of My Heart (Columbia). Aretha Franklin has had more than 60 hits in the US but sister Erma — a year younger at 49 — had her only Hot 100 entry in 1967, when her recording of this song, which is more readily associated with Janis Joplin, reached number 62. This is the latest record

41 QUIREBOYS: Tramps And Thieves. (Parlophone). With a trio of hits already under their collective belt from their 1990 debut album, the Quireboys move on to phase two of their career with the introductory single from their forthcoming album Bitter Sweet And Twisted. It's not an insult to say that their debut album A Bit Of What You Fancy was a surprise million seller. It performed fairly modestly in the UK, but accumulated good sales overseas, particularly in the US. The band is in no doubt that its success was fuelled by touring, and true to their belief, they're about to pack their toothbrushes for a concentrated schedule of 13 UK dates between October 11 and 27. Quireboys guitarist Guy Bailey says: "It feels like we've been away for ever. We belong out there on stage. We can't wait."

47 PAUL WELLER: Above The Clouds (Go! Discs). Weller registers his second solo hit with another track from his Top 10 solo album. Useful extra sales are being generated by the fact that the single includes three exclusive tracks — Everything Has A Price To Pay, All Year Round (Live) and a cover of Traffic/Joe Cocker's Feeling Alright — and the current tour, which culminates with a date at the Royal Albert Hall on October 13. Alan Jones
