CHART FOCUS

Tasmin Archer holds on to top position in the singles chart again this week, but is under renewed pressure from Boyz II Men, whose End Of The Road is gaining again after their Top Of The Pops appearance last Thursday.

The release of Tasmin's album on Monday may just tip the balance in favour of the Boyz. In America, End Of The Road creates chart history by taking an 11th week at number one this week — the longest reign of any single since the Hot 100 was established in 1958.

Back in blighty, an extensive and expensive TV campaign has paid rich dividends for Arrested Development, with People Everyday debuting at number 10, but even that can't match Bon Jovi's Keep The Faith. Their first single in three years, it's already their second biggest hit, debuting at no. 5.

People Everyday easily eclipses both the number 36 peak of Sly & The Family Stone's Everyday People, on which it is based, and Tennessee, Arrested Development's only previous hit, which reached number 46.

Nothing To Fear is Chris Rea's 25th hit single — and by entering at number 16 this week, it becomes his highest debuting single to date.

Lifted from Rea's upcoming album God's Great Banana Skin, Nothing To Fear is an extremely lengthy track.

At an unedited 9 minutes and 10 seconds, it's the second longest 7-inch hit of all time, immediately ahead of Lynyrd Skynyrd's Free Bird (9 minutes) but some way behind Grank Funk Railroad's

Inside Looking Out, a 9 minute 27 second hit from 1971.

Warner Music had a chance to become the first record company to have a trio of albums debut at number one in consecutive weeks this week, but after REM's Automatic For The People and Prince's Symbol made the feat theoretically possible, Madonna's Erotica failed to complete the treble, chart honours going instead to the Simple Mind's compilation Glittering Prize 81/92.

It's the group's fifth number one album, and prevents Madonna from having her fifth, all of which must be a source of quiet satisfaction to Virgin MD Paul Conroy, who enjoyed a lengthy and successful career at Warners.

Alan Jones NOTE: My brain said Brian May, but my pen said Roger Taylor, when I wrote last week about Hank Marvin's new single. Apart from the name, the remainder of the story was correct.

Apologies to all concerned.
