CHART FOCUS

Charles & Eddie increase their sales again at the top of the singles chart, but Whitney Houston is looking increasingly dangerous. Her update of Dolly Parton's 1974 single I Will Always Love You doubles its sales for the second week in a row, and is now handily placed to slip into pole position in time for Christmas. Whitney is already number one in America, where her single makes a staggering leap to take the title, vaulting from number 12.

Back home, the increasingly frenetic singles chart turnover, which should see over 1,000 different records chart this year for the first time ever, continues apace. No less than 26 singles make their debut this week though, unusually, none of them inside the Top 10. A tactic used increasingly of late to control the velocity at which records climb the chart is that of holding back one or more formats until a week or even two weeks after a single debuts. Singles whose growth is significantly due to such tactics this week include those by Guns N' Roses (a belated 12-inch picture disc), Brian May and Manic Street Preachers (both second CD singles).

It's noticeable too that a lot of solo stars in the chart are very mature, by usual standards, with more than ever before over 40, these being Brian May (45 years old), Diana Ross (48), Chris Rea (41), Cher (46), Neil Diamond (51), Elton John (45), Lionel Richie (43), Gary Glitter (52), Joe Cocker (48) and Martha Wash (age unknown), the latter artist scoring her debut solo hit this week following a distinguished career as a session vocalist on hits by Sylvester, C&C Music Factory and Black Box, as well as a starring role as one of the two Weather Girls, who scored a number two hit in 1984 with It's Raining Men.

On the album chart, Erasure become the tenth act to register four consecutive number ones, debuting in pole position with Pop — The First 20 Hits, which shipped platinum. They are also the first duo ever to register four number ones.

As well as Erasure, the Top 10 currently includes compilations by Cher, Simple Minds, Freddie Mercury, Gloria Estefan and Abba, a live album of previously released material by Genesis, a newly recorded album of oldies by Michael Bolton, a reissued 1987 album from Enya and just one album consisting wholly of new songs available for the first time — REM's Automatic For The People.
