CHART FOCUS

As befits a band of their status, Depeche Mode finally snare the big one this week, as their album Songs Of Faith And Devotion debuts at number one. In addition to their impossibly successful string of hit singles (their strike rate is better than 100 per cent, as all their UK singles have been hits here, as well as an import!) the band has released 10 albums, each and every one of which has reached the Top 10. They've still some way to go to match Elvis Presley's impressive opening volley of 17 straight Top 10 albums, but the only other acts to fare better than the Billericay band are the Rolling Stones (first 13 albums went Top 10), Led Zeppelin (11) and Cliff Richard (11). Yet for all this, Songs Of Faith And Devotion is Depeche Mode's first number one, their best effort previously being Violator, which peaked at number two on its debut precisely three years ago, foiled by David Bowie.

Bluebells' Young At Heart surprisingly dethrones Shaggy's Oh Carolina. Originally a number eight hit in 1984, its current success is due to its use in Volkswagen's TV campaign.

It will earn some unexpected income for one of its writers, Siobhan Fahey, who was with Bananarama at the time. Fahey was also co-writer of the record that was number one exactly a year ago, Shakespears Sister's Stay. To complete a good week for Fahey, she returns to the Top 75 this week as a guest vocalist on hubby Dave Stewart's Vegas project Walk

Into The Wind.

Madonna holds the record for consecutive Top 10 hits, and increases it to 29 as Fever debuts at number six. The fourth Top 10 hit from her current album Erotica, it is a remake of a song first recorded by Little Willie John in 1956, later popularised by Peggy Lee.

Actor Bill Tarmey, better known as Jack Duckworth of Coronation Street, makes his chart debut this week with a remake of Barry Manilow's 1979 album title track One Voice. Bill isn't the only member of the current Coronation Street cast to have a hit. Actress Sue Nicholls (Audrey Roberts) reached number 17 with Where Will You Be in 1968, at which point she was actually waitress Marilyn Gates in rival soap Crossroads. Tarmey is also not the first Street actor to have a hit whilst starring in the show; that honour went to Chris Sandford, who also scored a number 17 hit, with Not Too Little, Not Too Much, way back in 1963. Alan Jones
