CHART FOCUS

For the fourteenth time since Band Aid set the ball rolling in 1984, a charity single is number one. George Michael & Queen's Five Live EP is the new resident at the top of the chart, deposing the Bluebells' four week winner Young At Heart. The last two charity chart-toppers involved the same acts — Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody/These Are The Days Of Our Lives replaced George Michael & Elton John's Don't Let The Sun Go Down On Me at number one in December 1991. The Five Live EP is the first single to debut at number one since last June, when Erasure's Abba-esque EP got off to a winning start.

European countries, Inner Circle's Sweat (A La La La Long) had a disappointing campaign here last autumn, when it peaked at number 43. Now reissued (on Magnet this time, as opposed to WEA) it gets off to a much more satisfactory start, debuting at number 20. With D:Ream's U R The Best Thing placed a notch higher, Magnet has two concurrent Top 20 hits for the first time since the Seventies. The formerly independent label, which was acquired by Warner primarily to secure the services of Chris Rea, was founded 20 years ago, and reached its chart peak in 1975, when it had three top five hits in four weeks via Guys & Dolls, Pete Shelley and Susan Cadogan.

The fourth single from REM's Automatic For The People album, Everybody Hurts, becomes the first to reach the Top 10 (and the second biggest of their 13 hits in all) this week. Even though the album responds by increasing its week-on-week sales by more than 50%, it dips from number one to number three, as Aerosmith and Cliff Richard debut at number two and number one with Get A Grip and The Album respectively. The Album is Cliff's seventh number one album in all (one fewer than David Bowie, who established a new record for number one albums by solo artists only a fortnight ago). Equally impressive is the fact that Cliff's number ones have spanned more than 31 years (unprecedented) and that The Album is his first number one with a collection of new songs (as opposed to hits compilations) since 1963.
