CHART FOCUS

Notwithstanding a determined defence of their title by REM, Janet Jackson's first album for Virgin, entitled simply Janet, debuts at number one this week. It's the third Virgin album to reach number one this year, and the label's ninth thus far in the nineties, both figures making them market leaders. It's a success that also makes Janet & Michael Jackson the very first siblings in chart history to have separate number ones.

Live albums are making their biggest ever splash on the chart with seven in the Top 50, by Dire Straits, Wet Wet Wet, Gary Moore, Eric Clapton, Kiss, Bruce Springsteen and Morrissey. Rod Stewart and Neil Young also have MTV Unplugged live albums scheduled for the next couple of weeks. Live albums generally fare worse than new studio albums, and of the current batch none is likely to match the sales or chart success of the artist's previous releases except, perhaps, Clapton's Unplugged.

Kiss also deserve a mention for Alive III, which debuts at number 24, thus eclipsing Alive and Alive II, which peaked at number 49 and number 60 respectively in 1976 and 1977.

On the singles chart, the reggae beat is king, with the top three all broadly in that idiom. Ace Of Base continues at the top, and Inner Circle stay third, but UB40 have doubled their week-on-week sales as they climb to number two. They have a good chance of reaching pole position next week. Even though the group has written the majority of its 35 hits, its three biggest have all been covers — that's the current single plus the number ones Red Red Wine and I Got You Babe.

The welcome downturn in the number of covers charting in the past month is reversed a little this week, with newly-charting remakes from Bryan Ferry, Pinky & Perky and East Side Beat: the Italian act whose third hit You're My Everything debuts at number 65. It is also the 21st chart hit produced by Ian Levine.

The Top 10's liveliest mover this week is Tina Turner's I Don't Wanna Fight. It's 27 years ago this very week since the release of River Deep Mountain High in this country. It was to become her first Top 10 hit. I Don't Wanna Fight is her ninth.

Finally after yielding just one Top 40 hit in the previous eight weeks, the breakers chart shows a spark of life, as last week's number two (Jethro Tull's Living In The Past) and number five (Maria McKee's I'm Gonna Soothe You) both progress into the Top 40.
