CHART FOCUS

It's not the number one single, and it's not on the number one album, but more people acquired Shabba Ranks' Mr Loverman last week than any other track, by dint of the fact it appears on no fewer than seven albums in the Top 20 compilations chart. Bridging the pop/reggae/dance divide is clearly a lucrative business. It also appears on the upcoming Virgin compilation The Best Dance Album In The World... Ever! Shabba's recent Housecall single and even his current What'cha Gonna Do hit are also on, or lined up for, several compilations. Amid all this activity, his own album X-Tra Naked, which contains all three, has disappeared from the album chart.

What'cha Gonna Do debuted at number 21 last week, but is already in decline, dipping to number 24 this week. It's Shabba's fifth Top 40 hit, and, although he has released far more solo records than collaborations, each success has been a partnership.

Gabrielle continues at the top of the singles chart for a second week, but she, Haddaway and UB40, while continuing to rule the top three, all see their weekly sales tallies drop, while Chaka Demus & Pliers (up to number four) and Rod Stewart (up to number five) both make good progress.

Neither seems likely to reach pole position but even if they make no further upward move, they've done well — for Chaka Demus & Pliers it's the first breakthrough, and for Rod it's his biggest hit in two years, and his 19th top five success.

Conscious of the need to make hay while the sun shines, teen-orientated bands tend to have more hits in a shorter period than most. New Kids On The Block, for example squeezed seven hits into 1990. East 17's cover of the Pet Shop Boys' West End Girls is their fifth Top 20 hit in 10 months. It moves up to number 11 this week. With their own hit Can You Forgive Her at number 28, Pet Shop Boys Neil Tennant and Chris Lowe have two songs in the Top 40 simultaneously for only the second time in their career — the first occasion was in 1988, when they were topping the chart with Heart while Eighth Wonder were charting I'm Not Scared.

On the album chart, Jamiroquai's Emergency On Planet Earth consolidates its position at number one, but, fuelled by his current hit single, Rod Stewart's Unplugged... And Seated is up to number two, as close as he's got to having a number one album since his Greatest Hits album topped the chart back in 1979.
