CHART FOCUS

With Gabrielle and Jamiroquai each spending a third week at number one atop atypically sluggish singles and albums charts, the week's most notable achievement is that of Michael Jackson.

Michael's Thriller was the first album in the chart history to surrender seven Top 20 hits. Its success was bettered by Bad, which was the first to give up eight Top 20 hits. This week, Jacko's latest, Dangerous, equals Bad's record as Will You Be There debuts at number 11, an incredible feat since it offers no new material on any format.

It's an historic week for Kim Wilde, whose latest hit If I Can't Have You enters at number 16 this week. It's the highest debuting single of Kim's 27 hit career - and she now shares with Shirley Bassey and Petula Clark the honour of having more hits than any other homegrown female.

With the sun beating down, the England cricket team being whipped by the Aussies, Rod Stewart having a hit, If I Can't Have You and Everybody Dance in the Top 20 and a chart version of Ca Plane Pour Moi a recent memory it could be either July 1978 or July 1993. Of course, we know it's 1993 because in 1978 there were two versions of More Than A Woman competing for attention (the Bee Gees and Tavares), a hit version of You're The One That I Want (John Travolta/Olivia Newton-John) and Because The Night (Patti Smith). But ... clubs are currently playing two new versions of More Than A Woman (Primero and Moses), Co-Ro's Because The Night is a likely hit as is the release next week of Debbie Gibson and Craig McLachlan's You're The One That I Want.

Still on the nostalgia kick, Taylor Dayne's Can't Get Enough Of Your Love, a remake of Barry White's 1974 hit, moves up to number 18 this week. A month ago KWS's version of the song peaked ingloriously at number 71. That's quite a reversal for KWS, who were launched in the first place as Network's response to being unable to licence the European hit version of Please Don't Go by Double You. KWS went on to have a number one hit, while Double You floundered at number 41.

Finally a quick mention for Barbra Streisand, whose Back To Broadway album debuts at number four this week. It's Babs's biggest album success since 1986, when her original Broadway Album reached number three.
