CHART FOCUS

By hanging on to the number one slot for a fourth week, Take That's Pray becomes RCA's biggest hit since Rick Astley's debut single Never Gonna Give You Up registered five weeks at the top in 1987. Pray is unlikely to equal that, as it is under increasing pressure from Freddie Mercury's Living On My Own, which accelerates into the runners-up position.

The singles chart is experiencing something of a summer slumber at present, with just one record graduating to the Top 10, only eight singles debuting in the Top 40 and just 16 new arrivals in the Top 75.

The leading newcomer is Looking Up by Michelle Gayle, another RCA artist, which debuts at number 17. Gayle - better known as Hattie from EastEnders - is the fourth act to have a Top 20 hit while with the TV soap, following Nick Berry, Anita Dobson and the duo of Paul Medford and Letitia Dean.

Increasingly this year, records which have been big hits on the continent are graduating almost effortlessly to the UK charts. Haddaway, Dr Alban, Dance 2 Trance and Ace of Base are just a few examples. The list continues to grow with the arrival of Culture Beat's Mr Vain. Currently number one in Germany for a sixth week for the German/American group, the record is also topping the chart in Holland and Switzerland, and bears a great similarity to Rhythm Is A Dancer, by that other German/American co-op Snap.

Jason Donovan's latest single All Around The World is itself number one in the Breakers' Chart. All Around The World is the first of Jason's 17 hits to debut outside the Top 40. Even his first single - Nothing Can Divide Us - managed to scrape in at number 37. Jason's up-coming album, also entitled All Around The World, and scheduled for release on August 23, is also likely to under-achieve, as it features a mere six new songs. The 10 oldies that flesh it out date back as far as 1989's Too Many Broken Hearts which formed part of his 1991 Greatest Hits album.

Notwithstanding the success of Billy Ray Cyrus, it remains difficult to chart country singles in Britain, but Irish country star Daniel O'Donnell registers his second hit this week, as Whatever Happened To Old Fashioned Love debuts at number 31. Previously a little known song in the UK, it topped America's country singles chart a decade ago in a version by B J Thomas.

Last week, two labels registered Top 40 hits at the first attempt - Brilliant via Bitty McLean and Hug with Stan, while a third (Party Dish) came close. But it's not always so easy.

Dance label Cowboy has issued a string of club successes without reaching the upper echelon. It finally succeeds this week, as Secret Life's Love So Strong - Cowboy's 18th single - debuts at number 38.

UB40 and U2 continue to dominate the album chart, where the week's finest achievement comes from radical rappers Cypress Hill. The group, as politically incorrect as they come (they re-write the Three Little Pigs ditty as "I'll huff, I'll puff and I'll blow your head off" on I Ain't Goin' Out Like That), failed to chart with their self-titled album in 1991. Their second effort, Black Sunday, debuts at number 13.

In America, where Cypress Hill sold a million even though it peaked at number 31, Black Sunday has performed sensationally, debuting at number one this week as it pushes past U2's Zooropa. Alan Jones
