● Pet Shop Boys Debut at No 2 ● Meat Loaf Makes it No 5 for Virgin

CHART FOCUS

Sony Music still have the number one single via Culture Beat's Mr. Vain, but it's EMI's week in almost every other way. The British-owned record company is responsible for the four highest debuting singles this week; has a label which increases its 1993 Top 40 hit ratio to an impressive 10 from 11 releases, and another which registers its fifth number one album of the year, creating a new record.

EMI's singles chart blitz is led by the Pet Shop Boys' Go West, which debuts at number two. Whether or not it reaches number one - the odds are about 50/50 against it - it is already the band's biggest hit since Heart topped the chart in 1988.

Fresh from its recent visit to the US Top 40, Radiohead's Creep charts at number seven instantly and decisively topping both the group's previous best - Anyone Can Play Guitar reached number 32 - and the number 78 peak that Creep scaled when it was first released.

Both the Pet Shop Boys and Radiohead are on the Parlophone label, while EMI's two other big hits are on the parent label itself. They are Rubberband Girl, which debuts at number 12 for Kate Bush equalling the peak of her last single Rocket Man, and It Must Have Been Love, Roxette's number three hit from 1990 which returns to the chart at number 16 following the television screening of Pretty Woman in which it features. The soundtrack album to

A downward spiral that culminated in Heaven's Open falling to chart led to Mike Oldfield departing from Virgin for WEA, where his first album Tubular Bells II replicated the 1974 success of the original Tubular Bells album by reaching number one. Virgin pull a similar stunt themselves this week as Meatloaf's Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell - his debut for the label, enters the chart at number one after selling upwards of 100,000 copies last week. Meanwhile, the original Bat Out Of Hell album continues to climb the UK charts, reaching No 28 this week. Hits Out Of Hell rises to No 46.

Pretty Woman moves to number nine on the compilation chart from number 22 (it was not in the Top 50 a fortnight ago) and the video explodes too, moving from 141 to number 19.

Meanwhile, the Cooltempo label, which EMI acquired when it purchased Chrysalis, has had a spectacular year. In 1992 it had the 20th best strike rate with seven Top 40 hits from 22 releases. So far in 1993, it has released 11 singles - and Shara Nelson's One Goodbye In Ten, which debuts at number 24, is its tenth Top 40 hit. The others, in the order in which they charted: Arrested Development - Mr Wendal (number four), Monie Love - Born 2 B.R.E.E.D. (number 18), Arrested Development - Tennessee (number 18), Kenny Thomas Stay (number 22), Monie Love - In a Word Or 2/The Power (number 33), Shara Nelson - Down The Road (number 19), Juliet Roberts - Caught In The Middle (number 24), Kenny Thomas - Trippin' On Your Love (number 17) and Guru's Trust Me (number 34). The one that missed out? Monie Love's Never Give Up, which came close peaking at number 41. At 89%, Cooltempo's Top 40 hit-rate is higher even than the 85% that won Deconstruction the title in 1992.

Finally, Virgin was generally regarded as a costly acquisition for EMI, but it proves its mettle by grabbing its fifth number one album of 1993 with Meatloaf's Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell, it previously hit the top with Live - The Way We Walk Volume 2 by Genesis, Are You Gonna Go My Way by Lenny Kravitz, Janet by Janet Jackson and UB40's Promises And Lies. It's the first time in the 35 year history of the album chart that any label has had five number ones in a year. Alan Jones
