FRANKIE SAY

Take That vie for year's top seller • Meat Loaf beats M People to the top

CHART FOCUS

Relight My Fire by Take That featuring Lulu continues to record massive sales at the top of the singles chart.

It has taken only two weeks to go silver, and if it continues to sell at its current rate, it could possibly overtake Ace Of Base's All That She Wants to become the biggest selling single of 1993.

That would be quite a bonus for the song's writer Dan Hartman, who saw his own version of Relight My Fire flop when it was released in the seventies.

It's not the first time Dan's had a windfall from an old song here – the number one single of 1989 was Black Box's Ride On Time, which was based on samples of Loleatta Holloway singing his composition and recording of Love Sensation.

Take That's main competitor this week is Meat Loaf, whose epic I'd Do Anything For Love (But I Won't Do That) is now his biggest hit.

Its success pushes his album Bat Out Of Hell II – Back Into Hell back to number one, its opening five chart positions having been 1-2-1-2-1.

Meat's tenacity is unfortunate for M People who have to be content with a number two debut for their Elegant Slumming album.

Prince's three hits packages continue to have legs. In the four weeks since they were first released, they have generated business worth more than £1.25m at retail.

The early leader of the three, The Hits/B Sides, is now lagging behind

M-People's second album Elegant Slumming, which debuts at number two, has performed much better than their first, Northern Soul, which made only two appearances in the chart, peaking at number 53 last March. Northern Soul has sold very consistently at a low level and is only just short of silver certification (60,000 sales). Elegant Slumming is the biggest chart album yet for M-People's label Deconstruction, topping the number 16 peak of Black Box's 1990 album Dreamland. Deconstruction's first album was the self-titled Hot House LP, almost five years ago, which featured vocalist Heather Small, who now fronts M People.

at number 27, while The Hits 1 is number eight and The Hits 2 slightly ahead at seven (suggesting perhaps that initially cautious buyers are coming back for more).

The Hits 2 title includes the current single Peach, which debuts this week at number 17.

It is Prince's 36th hit single, pushing him into the top five US hitmakers in the UK, behind Elvis Presley, Diana Ross, Stevie Wonder and Michael Jackson.

And, though he may or may not record again in his own right, he's as prolific as ever in his extracurricular activities, having written for and participated in the recording of albums from Kate Bush, George Clinton, Mavis Staples and Tevin Campbell, to mention only those scheduled to be released in the next month.

Frankie Goes To Hollywood's Relax at eight is enjoying its third consecutive week in the Top 10 and its 22nd week in all. The latter tally is the highest achieved by any record since 1960, topping the Beatles' She Loves You and Bryan Adams's (Everything I Do) I Do It For You. The difference is that Adams and the Beatles had continuous Top 10 residencies of 21 weeks.

Finally, Pop Will Eat Itself had the biggest hit of their career with their last single Get The Girl Kill The Baddies, which peaked at number nine.

It was the Poppies' final RCA single.

Now signed to Infectious, their latest offering R.S.V.P./Famulus Horribilus extends their run of consecutive Top 40 hits to seven, but it's far less successful than Get The Girl, debuting at number 27.
