

Meat Loaf holds off Guns N' Roses ● Mr Blobby debuts at number three

CHART FOCUS

Meat Loaf registers a highly credible double again this week, hanging on to his leadership of both the singles and albums chart in spite of strong challenges.

On the singles chart, I'd Do Anything For Love (But I Won't Do That) is top for the seventh straight week, while its parent album, Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell, is enjoying its eighth week at the summit.

The album increased its sales again this week to beat off the challenge of Guns N' Roses' new album of punk covers The Spaghetti Incident - a notable achievement in view of the fact that GNR had enough firepower last time out to debut at number one and two simultaneously with expensive double albums entitled Use Your Illusion 1 & 2.

On the singles chart, I'd Do Anything is beginning to dip quite sharply, and its lead over Elton John & Kiki Dee's True Love is now fairly minimal, but Elt & Kiki are also looking a bit tired, and could find themselves being overhauled next week by the truly awful Mr Blobby single, which debuts at number three.

The Bee Gees stage the week's highest in-chart jump as For Whom The Bell Tolls surges from number 38 to number 13. It thus surpasses the number 23 success of their recent Paying The Price Of Love single. A large portion of sales of For Whom

Of Blue Eyes is back: No, not Frank Sinatra, but Elton John - although there's more than a few connections between these two old faithfuls. Both Elton and Frank have long and distinguished chart careers; both set up their own record labels (Elton's Rocket and Frank's Reprise); both have required their own hair to be, er, augmented; and both have new albums of superstar collaborations with the very simple title Duets. No-one appears on both albums although KD Lang, who is on Elt's Duets is mooted as a probable for a proposed second album of Sinatra duets. This is Elton's 32nd hit album.

The Bell Tolls are generated not by the track itself, but by its CD's alternative tracks, one CD featuring a selection of old favourites, the other some contemporary mixes of You Should Be Dancing, although the latter mixes are rather oddly entitled Decadance, and are probably being overlooked by some who are unaware of the connection.

David Bowie has scored four Top 40 hits in a year for the first time since 1981. Bowie's first three hits came from his Black Tie White Noise, while his latest is the title track from the TV series Buddha Of Suburbia.

Meanwhile, M People become the first act to register four Top 10 hits this year, as Don't Look Any Further debuts at number nine (their previous successes were How Can I Love You More, One Night In Heaven and Moving On Up). It's a sign of their current popularity that they've been able to turn Don't Look Any Further into a smash where previous efforts by Dennis Edwards featuring Siedah Garrett and the Kane Gang founded outside the Top 40, twice in the case of the former artists.

On the album chart, two artists are succeeding with very different celebrations of the music of Andrew Lloyd Webber. German bandleader James Last holds down 26th place with James Last Plays Andrew Lloyd Webber, while veteran Welsh songthrus Shirley Bassey's Sings Andrew Lloyd Webber album debuts at number 56. It's the first charted album for EMI's mid-price label Premier, for whom Bassey specially recorded it. And it's Bassey's 31st hit album a few weeks short of her 57th birthday.

NEWCOMERS

3 MR BLOBBY: Mr Blobby (Destiny Music) UK debut. Producer: Paul Shaw/David Rogers. Publisher: Destiny. Writer: Shaw/Rogers. Notes: The BBC's inflatable pink and yellow Mr Blobby sprang to fame on Noel's House Party. He was used to lure celebs on to his fictitious "Mr Blobby Children's TV Show" as part of the Candid Camera-ish Gotcha Awards. Teaming up with Blobby on this single are the King's College School Choir. Album: none.

9 M PEOPLE: Don't Look Any Further (Deconstruction) UK 8th hit. Producer: M People. Publisher: EMI/Warner Chappell/BMG. Writer: Lambert/Golde/Hutchins. Line-up: Mike Pickering (K), Paul Heard (K), Heather Small (V). First hit: How Can I Love You More (29, 1991). Biggest/last hit: Moving On Up (2, 1993). Notes: Originally a number 45 hit for Dennis Edwards in 1984 and also the Kane Gang (52, 1988). The original drum riff from the Edwards version inspired a plethora of dance hits. Album: Elegant Slumming.

12 VILLAGE PEOPLE: Y.M.C.A. ('93 Remix) (Bell) US 7th hit. Producer: Jacques Morali/Henry Belolo. Publisher: Scorpio/Leosong. Writer: Morali/Belolo/Willis. Line-up: Alexander Briley, David Hoda, Glenn Hughes,

Jeff Olson, Felipe Rose, Raymond Simpson (all V). First hit: San Francisco (You've Got Me) (45, 1977). Biggest hit: Y.M.C.A. (1, 1978). Last hit: Sex Over The Phone (59, 1985). Notes: Formed by French producers Morali and Belolo in Greenwich Village, New York. The band have sold more than 20m singles and 28m albums worldwide. Album: The Best Of Village People.

19 EAST 17: It's Alright (London) UK 6th hit. Producer: Power Syndicate. Publisher: PolyGram. Writer: Mortimer. Line-up: Tony Mortimer

(V), Brian Harvey (V), John Hendy (V/B), Terry Caldwell (V). First hit: House Of Love (10, 1992). Biggest hit: Deep (5, 1993). Last hit: West End Girls (11, 1993). Notes: The band have spent the past two months on a promotional tour of Europe and the US. This single is a re-recording of a track from their album. A video, titled Pie And Mash, is released this week featuring promos, live footage and interviews. Album: Walthamstow.

20 SNOOP DOGGY DOGG: What's My Name (Interscope) US debut hit. Producer: Dr Dre. Publisher: Suge. Writer: Snoop. Notes: 21 year old rapper from LA who made a name for himself after appearing on Dr Dre's multi-platinum album The Chronic. Dogg's debut album has US advance orders of 2m-plus and looks set to become the first ever debut album to enter the Billboard chart at number one. Album: Doggystyle (November 29).

35 DAVID BOWIE: The Buddha Of Suburbia (Arista). UK 55th hit. Producer: David Bowie/David Richards. Publisher: EMI. Writer: Bowie. First hit: Space Oddity (5, 1969). Biggest hit: Dancing In The Street (with Mick Jagger) (1, 1985). Last hit: Miracle Goodnight (40, 1993). Notes: From the soundtrack (written by Bowie) of the BBC TV series. Co-produced by David Richards. Album: The Buddha Of Suburbia.
