■ Take That roll over Blobby ● Meat Loaf LP nears Bodyguard sales total

s much as any fat pink splodge with vellow blobs can e unlucky, Mr Blobby is just that this week, his eponymous debut single dropping to number two week after entering at one even though its sales have increased week-on-week by nearly 80%. Blobby's demise is brought about by Take That, whose Babe single registers the highest weekly sale of any of their hits to date. Mr Blobby is the first single to be dethroned after only a week at number one since U2's The Fly more than two years ago.

It is a splendid week for Chaka Demus & Pliers, who register their third consecutive Top 5 hit with Twist And Shout. Loosely adapted from La Bamba and originally recorded by the Top Notes in 1961, Twist & Shout was first popularised by the Isley Brothers and then the Beatles and has now been a Top 5 hit on three separate occasions, thus becoming one of the most successful songs ever. It was a number four hit for Brian Poole & The Tremeloes in 1963, and reached the same position when revived by Salt N' Pepa five years ago. With Chaka Demus & Pliers also debuting in that position, there is currently a three-way tie for highest charting version of the song.

Dina Carroll has two singles in the Top 10, as Don't Be A Stranger holds at number eight and The Perfect Year moves up to number 10. It is something of a rarity for an artist to have two simultaneous Top 10 singles, though as recently as

Take That's Babe is Britain's 699th number one, and the 33rd to debut in pole position. They are the eleventh act to register as many as three number ones in a year, and the first to do so since Jive Bunny in 1989. But they are only the second act to have three singles debut at number one in the same year – Slade did it in 1973 - and the first ever to have three debut at one consecutively. Take That's position as the UK's pre-eminent teen stars is beyond doubt, with East 17 - up to iber seven with It's Alright – in second place, World's Apart and Bad Boys Inc vying for third place and Slamm fifth.

February Whitney Houston had I'm Every Woman and I Will Always Love You in the Top 10 at the same time. Meat Loaf comes close to emulating Dina too, as I'd Do Anything For Love drifts to number three and the re-released Bat Out Of Hell debuts at number 11. Last Friday, total sales of I'd Do Anything For Love simultaneously eclipsed Ace Of Base's All That She Wants and UB40's Can't Help Falling In Love to jump to the top of the 1993 sales chart. Meat's album Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell is already well established at the top of the year-to-date album listings, and is close to catching The Bodyguard soundtrack to become this year's biggest selling album of any kind.

Gone Too Soon is Michael Jackson's ninth Top 40 hit from Dangerous, but while the other eight all peaked inside the Top 15, Gone Too Soon is lurking at number 35. Whether it is a single too far, suffering from adverse press reports about his personal life or a combination of the two, we can only speculate. Find The River, the sixth single from REM's Automatic For The People, brings their run of 11 consecutive Top 40 hits spluttering to a halt this week as it dips out of the Top 75 only a week after debuting at number 54. Other big names with problems include Lisa Stansfield, whose smallest ever hit Little Bit Of Heaven debuted at number 32 last week and is already in reverse, and Right Said Fred and Rod Stewart, whose latest hits debut at 64 and 74 respectively. But at least they made the Top 75, a feat that is beyond the new releases by Robert Plant, Chris Rea, Kirsty MacColl and Sonia to name just a few from whom better things can usually be expected. Alan Jones
