CHARTS AND PRODUCT NEWS

5 MARCH 1994

● Ace of Base mount singles challenge ● Dion gets highest album entry

CHART FOCUS

Concern about the lack of climbers within the chart must be diminished by the fact that no fewer than 14 singles make upwards moves within the Top 75 this week, though this tally includes singles from Enigma, Toni Braxton, Cappella and The Cranberries which halt previous descents.

At the very top of both singles and albums charts, Mariah Carey continues to reign (see picture story, right). In neither chart is she seriously challenged, though Ace Of Base's The Sign makes powerful progress on the singles chart, where it moves up to number two.

The highest new entry to the singles chart comes from Smashing Pumpkins. The Chicago band's Disarm debuts at number 11 - a vast improvement on the number 44 peak of their last single Today, and a flying start for the Hut label, as it is integrated into the regular Virgin operation for the first time. A consequence of this is that it is distributed by EMI, and not by RTM/Pinnacle.

While Disarm is Smashing Pumpkins' biggest hit ever, old favourite Elvis Costello, who first charted 17 years ago, has a notable success with Sulky Girl, on which he is reunited with old backing band The Attractions.

The single debuts at number 22 this week, instantly becoming Costello's biggest hit since his pseudonymous 1983 hit Pills And

As her 24th birthday looms, Mariah Carey could be excused for celebrating early; for the second week in a row she has the country's number one single and album via Without You and Music Box. Without You is Britain's 702nd number one, and the 85th by a female soloist (83 of them vocal hits, the exceptions being a pair of instrumental medleys by Winifred Attwell). More impressively, though it's the 35th single to enter the chart at number one, it's the first ever by a female soloist. Finally, Mariah is only the fourth woman to simultaneously top the singles and albums charts.

Soap, which he recorded as The Imposter. Sulky Girl is already the seventh biggest of Costello's 30 hits. Two songs currently used in TV commercials enter the chart side by side this week: at number 42, Black's Wonderful Life, already a hit in 1986 and 1987, returns to the fray after being extensively used in the Standard Life Assurance ad, while one rung lower, Eartha Kitt's If I Love Ya, Then I Need Ya makes its chart debut courtesy of Flora margarine, some 37 years after it was recorded.

It's the second oldest recording to make its chart debut - George Van Dusen's It's Party Time Again was nearly 50 years old when it reached number 43 in 1988.

Strange stirrings on the album chart where, after threatening the chart for several weeks following his death, Brian Johnston's An Evening With Jonners breaks through at number 47. One of the rare spoken word albums on CD (though Charisma issued a CD of reminiscences by fellow deceased cricket correspondent John Arlott) it's one of even fewer spoken word albums to make the chart. It's the highest placed since 1976, when journalist David Wigg's The Beatles Tapes (interviews with the fab four) peaked at number 45, though Chas and Di's Royal Wedding album, which included musical arias sung by Kiri Te Kanawa, was a chart topper in 1981.

Even older than Jonners, the Monks Chorus Silos's interpretation of the Major Works of Canto Gregori is a classical crossover of significant proportions, entering the chart at number 66. More on this phenomenon next week.

Alan Jones

hit: You're All I Need/Wild Side (23, 1988). Last hit: Home Sweet Home (Remix) (37, 1992). Line-up: Nikki Sixx (b), John Corabi (v), Mick Mars (g), Tommy Lee (d). Notes: With 25m album sales under their belt, this is taken from the band's eponymous seventh album which features new vocalist John Corabi who previously recorded with Scream. Dates for a European tour are expected to be announced soon. Album: Motley Crue (March 14).

43 EARTHA KITT: If I Love Ya, Then I Need Ya... (RCA) US 7th hit. Publisher: MCA. Writer: Merrill.

First/biggest hit: Under The Bridges Of Paris (7, 1955). Last hit: Cha Cha Heels with Bronski Beat (32, 1989). Notes: A hit 36 years after it was recorded, thanks to the Flora margarine ads. Until recently surpassed by Dinah Washington, Kitt held the record for the longest span between hits, some 28 years and 170 days. Album: spring 1994.

56 QUIVVER: Saxy Lady (A&M) UK debut.

Producer: Quivver. Publisher: Copyright Control. Writer: Graham/Barry. Line-up: John Graham (k), Neil Barry (k). Notes: The brainchild of Coventry-born Neil Barry and John Graham, Saxy Lady was originally produced at the end of 1993 and after interest on white label was picked up by A&M. The track has been championed by the likes of Pete Tong and Sasha. Album: none planned.

from NY's Strictly Rhythm dance label following Reel 2 Real and River Ocean. Backing vocals on this former RM Club Chart topper include India, Michael Watford and Byron Stingly from Ten City. Tucker, a renowned session singer from New York is also an accomplished choreographer. Album: summer 1994.
