WEEK ENDING
12 MARCH 1994

Carey scores again for Columbia ● Albums include monks and Mario Lanza

CHART FOCUS

Mariah Carey continues to hold firm atop both the singles and albums charts, though Swedish challengers Ace Of Base and Dutch newcomers Doop could both overturn her in the singles chart next week.

It's another very busy week in the Top 40 with 15 new entries, but true to its name the Cranberries' debut hit Linger lingers on. It has now spent five weeks in the chart, in a narrow band between number 14 and number 16. Even so, the sustained airplay and steady sales have paid big dividends for the group's album, Everyone Else Is Doing It, So Why Can't We?, which was reissued last week. It returns to the chart at number three, having peaked at 64 when originally released last March.

Other artists having a good week include Morrissey and Primal Scream. The latter's rock/funk double-header, pairing the Rolling Stones-like Rocks with the Clintonesque Funky Jam debuts at number seven. It's their first Top 10 hit ever. Meanwhile, Morrissey's first appearance on Top Of The Pops in some time sealed his first Top 10 single since 1988.

Mozza's first four solo hits all made the Top 10, but in ten attempts since then, he has never reached the upper echelon. This week, however, The More You Ignore Me, The Closer I Get debuts at number eight.

The success of records like Without You by Mariah Carey and Boy George's return continues this week as his five track mini album, The Devil In Sister George, debuts at 26. Comprising remixed tracks from Culture Club, Jesus Loves You and his solo career, it thus eclipses all his post Culture Club work, and is his highest charting album since the group's This Time reached number eight in 1987. And, as befits an album of club mixes, its popularity is greatest with the dance fraternity - it debuts at one on the dance albums chart.

The Power Of Love by Celine Dion was pretty much a foregone conclusion. Pairing a well-loved oldie and a current chart force is an easy route to success. But let's hear it for Alison Moyet and new bloomers Fire Island, both of whom register Top 40 hits this week with barely remembered songs that flopped in previous versions.

Fire Island's hit, There But For The Grace Of God, was originally recorded by Kid Creole, and was a minor US hit, but UK flop, in a hi-NRG version by Machine in 1979.

Four years later, in May 1983, Alison Moyet was still a member of Yazoo. In the same week that one of Yazoo's biggest hits, Nobody's Diary, was released, so was an EMI single by 31 year old American singer-songwriter Jules Shear. Entitled Whispering Your Name, it failed to chart, but this week it provides Ms. Moyet with her biggest hit since Love Letters in 1987, as it debuts at number 31 - one notch ahead of There But For The Grace Of God.

While old songs do well in the singles chart, old recordings by Europeans prosper on the albums list. Mario Lanza's The Ultimate Collection debuts at number 27.

Comprising tracks recorded between 1949 and 1958, the year before his death, it's the third and most successful attempt so far to market his pleasing tenor on TV, following 1981 and 1987 albums on K-Tel and Stylus.

And making a dash from number 65 to 32 is the even more unlikely chartbuster Les Mejores Obras Del Canto Gregoriano (Masterpieces Of Gregorian Chant) by Monks Chorus Silos. This is the 'greatest chants' compilation that took Europe by storm last year, selling upwards of 300,000 copies in the monks' home country of Spain.
